FOREWORD

THE theory of art and education as molders of character is not a new one, as many people believe, but is as old as the Greeks. In their schools, the youth of the time were trained physically, mentally, and artistically. Through the ages their idea has been lost many times, but, with the advent of the twentieth century, it has been again brought to life and further developed. Today, in our modern high schools and colleges, this educational theory has reached its culmination. Our own Hughes, as we shall show through this, the Annual of 1926, is a modern exponent of that ancient idealistic theory, for, her students are trained physically, through her teams and by her teachers of gymnastics; mentally, through her organizations and by her teachers; and artistically, by her teachers of art, her institutions of art and music, and through the influence of her classic halls.

DEDICATION

SEVENTY-THREE years ago the child "Hughes" was born. With the kindly care of teachers and the loyalty of pupils she was nourished through childhood. The erection of the present building marked the last step in her maturity. Throughout her many years of service, all who have lived within her walls have known the strength of her character and the kindness of her service. To our Hughes, the realized dream of Thomas Hughes, we dedicate our Annual.

MR. SIMON'S OFFICE

THE administrative positions of Hughes are so varied that it is difficult to classify them into certain divisions. With the varied interests of teachers and pupils, situations constantly arise that must be dealt with promptly. The assistant principal must be ready to handle these situations.

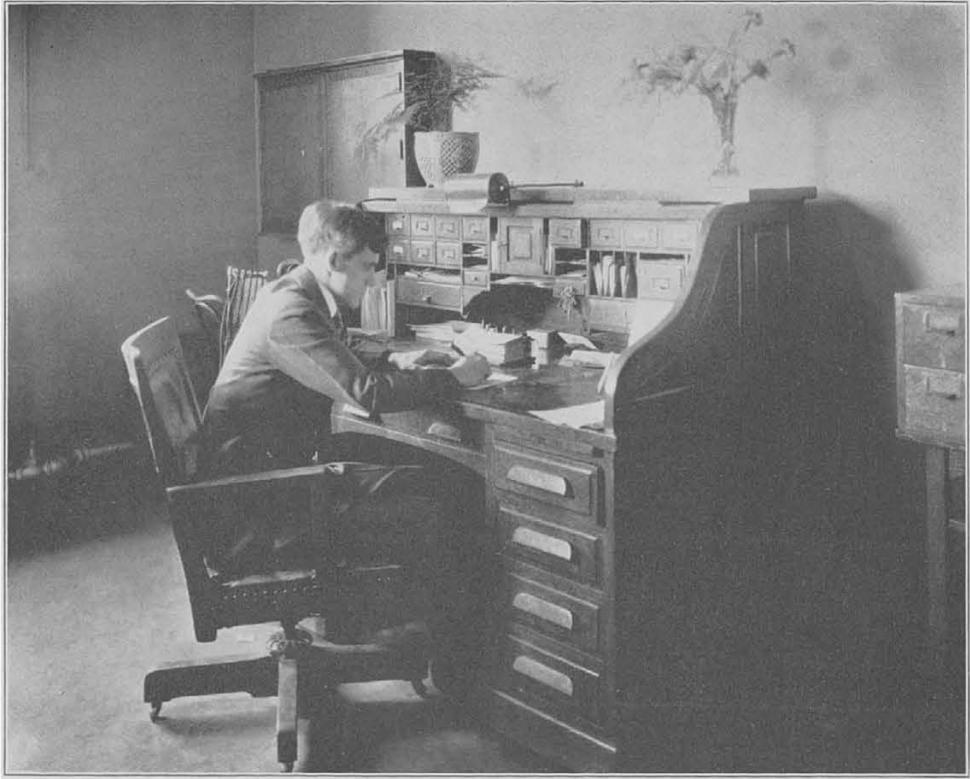

His is the immense task of arranging the programs for the coming "D" grade. He takes the option cards, which they made out in the eighth grade of elementary school, and by means of information on these cards, he arranges them in classes. He has general supervision of the conduct and class progress of the first-year pupils. When he finds the Freshmen are not making satisfactory grades, he notifies the parents, and by conferences with them seeks to have the delinquents make greater effort.

Mr. Simon has charge of the purchase and distribution of all supplies for the school. He makes an inventory at the close of the year of the books on hand, and, where there is a deficiency in the number needed for the ensuing year, he sends an order to the Board of Education for books.

Other supplies for students are in stock in the salesroom, and are sold under the assistant principal's supervision. These sales amount to $5,000.00 per year, and the profits are used for the school. The assistant principal has complete charge of exams, he receives the questions from the teachers, has them printed and exercises general supervision of the exams.

Each year he makes an inventory of all the equipment. Now do you still wonder why we see Mr. Simon busy at all times in all parts of the building?

ROBERT KOPPENHOEFER.

MR. KIZER AND HIS DUTIES

MR. KIZER is a busy man. Step into his office any time to see. He intrudes upon our personal affairs, such as detention dates; our grades, when we try out for athletics. He also invites us down for special exams in his office. He is positively rude, the way he laughs when a pupil tells him the clock at home was slow this morning, or that the "Bond Hill Special" was late because bandits ran off with a few sections of track! Hughes High records show that the only time Mr. Kizer excused us for being late was the time a cow blocked the track, and necessitated the building of a detour. This autocrat, too, seems especially delighted when you have detention and a promise to meet mother down town — or someone else.

Nevertheless, Mr. Kizer helps us out when we lose our locker keys; he writes hundreds of excuses; he arranges our lunch hours, and varies the first, second and third lunch period so that we do not have to starve; and last, but not least, he is our Hughes Club sponsor. He meets with us, is one of us, and gives us his broader experience and his wholesome advice.

Here is to your health and happiness, Mr. Kizer — may you continue to give your valuable services to Hughes.

GLEN WILLIS.

MISS SANDER'S OFFICE

WHO does not know Miss Sanders? But if, perchance, you do not, you may have wondered at the long line of girls every morning standing in front of 112, and you may have wondered who was that fascinating person behind that line. Well, she is Miss Sanders. Then, your next question may be, why does she attract so many girls? That is because Miss Sanders is the mighty keeper of those little slips that say, "So and so is excused or — not excused" for being absent, tardy, or for whatever the occasion may demand. But this is only one reason for Miss Sanders' popularity, and only one part of her work.

A great part of Miss Sanders' time is devoted to conferences. She has many conferences with pupils concerning their present and future education; their financial matters; and various other things which may trouble them at the time.

A third care of Miss Sanders' is the emergency room. Miss Sanders takes care of all the girls who become ill during the school day and all minor emergency cases.

Miss Sanders is the dean of the girls in Hughes High School. We certainly could not get along without her; and we, the girls especially, wish to thank her and extend to her our deepest appreciation for her kind services.

ESTHER LOWENTHAL.

HUGHES

Words by Mary Helen Lathrop Nelson

Music by Clara Yorston Woodside

She's the goddess we adore,
Is Hughes,
And we love her more and more,
Our Hughes,
Oh we hope to keep her fame,
In ev'ry kind of game,
And all praise be to her name,
Hughes, Hughes, Hughes, Hughes.

Our allegiance will not swerve
From Hughes;
In a parabolic curve
For Hughes
We will kick the football high,
And the basketball shall fly,
While our banners rend the sky,
Hughes, Hughes, Hughes, Hughes.

May her strength remain for aye,
Our Hughes,
Though in time her walls decay,
Our Hughes,
Oh, Phoenix-like she'll rise,
Till her towers strike the skies,
And her sunset banner flies,
Hughes, Hughes, Hughes, Hughes.

CLASSDAYS "26"

Words by Theodore Tiemeyer

Music by De Loyce W. Moffitt

To Hughes we give our thanks and praise.
To Hughes, for all our happy days;
And as the parting time draws nigh,
We'll blend once more our joy, and sigh.
And loud our Alma Mater sing,
And loud our Alma Mater sing,
Till hill and dale with echoes ring.
Oh Goddess, in Thy memory fix,
The parting class of twenty-six.

Officers

Robert Lee.....	President
Phoebe Rowe.....	Vice President
Alma Schott.....	Secretary
David Porter.....	Treasurer

FROM all the parts of the city there came together in September, 1923, a motley crowd of boys and girls, trembling with fear, filled with awe at the vastness of the school building, eager to grasp the opportunities that Hughes offered, and with one ambition in our hearts (for this was our class), to some day be able to claim Hughes as our beloved Alma Mater. At that time, that day seemed far away, but now as members of the Junior class, we feel that our dream is soon to be realized. Some of those who entered with us have fallen by the wayside, but we feel that we have chosen wisely in remaining at Hughes.

It scarcely seems possible that just three years ago we entered these halls. After gazing at the Winged Victory, we threaded our way through groups of upper-classmen into the auditorium. Feeling then so small and insignificant, many of us doubted whether we would ever reach the end of the journey; yet we were thrilled to be a part of that great throng. The first half-year was full of pit-falls for the unwary, but, after the dreaded exams, we felt that we had crossed our first Rubicon and were within the gates.

How we were thrilled the next fall, when we heard ourselves called Sophomores. No longer were fingers of scorn pointed at us, for we were permitted to wend our way through the halls, unaccompanied by Freshie's Aids. Undaunted by the studies thrust upon us, we took part in all the pleasures that were offered. We went to all the athletic events and cheered the "Big Reds" until even the frogs in our throats refused to croak.

And now we come to the great year of years — we are Juniors! How many members there are in our class of whom we may be proud. Are we not well represented in all the activities of the school? We are organized as a school body, and we fully realize how important it is for us to carry on the traditions and uphold the ideals for which Hughes has always stood. One more year awaits us before we leave these halls, and as we go forth this year, we hope that Hughes will be able to say, "That was one of the finest Junior classes I ever had within my walls."

PHOEBE ROWE, '27.

EVERYONE knows that each year brings its gift of Freshmen to Hughes, but everyone does not know that along with these Freshmen arrive a myriad of sprites. One little sprite comes with every beginner, to watch and guard over him during his high school life. These tiny beings are everywhere, but their main meeting place is by the "Winged Victory," in our front hall. If you should listen, very, very intently there, you might overhear their conversation. I happened to eavesdrop the other day (unintentionally, of course) and this is what I heard:

"Ho! Ho!" chuckled the cheery tones of a Junior Spirit's voice, as a well-poised girl sauntered past, "who would have thought that only last year she stood desolately by the door of Room 109 and pleaded, oh so tearfully, 'Please, won't some one tell me how to find Room 110? Well, she's getting even all right now.'"

"Yes," replied the grand voice of a Senior Spirit, "these Sophomores are truly quite proud of themselves. They seem to forget that they have superiors."

"Wh-why that isn't true — not a bit," protested a group of perturbed Sophomore Spirits in the rear. "Let us tell you things as they really are. It's quite true that the new Sophomores started school this year with an entirely false sense of their own importance, but oh, my, all those 'triangles' and 'wars' and 'verbs' soon showed them that they didn't know anything. So then they climbed down from their shaky pedestals and began to work. They've made real progress in their studies; and though it meant hours of true labor, they are glad they did it."

"The year has been one fascinating experience after another, especially the clubs. The Sophomores have joined every organization into which they could possibly get. The Sages were beyond their reach, but to make fine members for the Sages in the future they organized the C-Grade Dramatic Club."

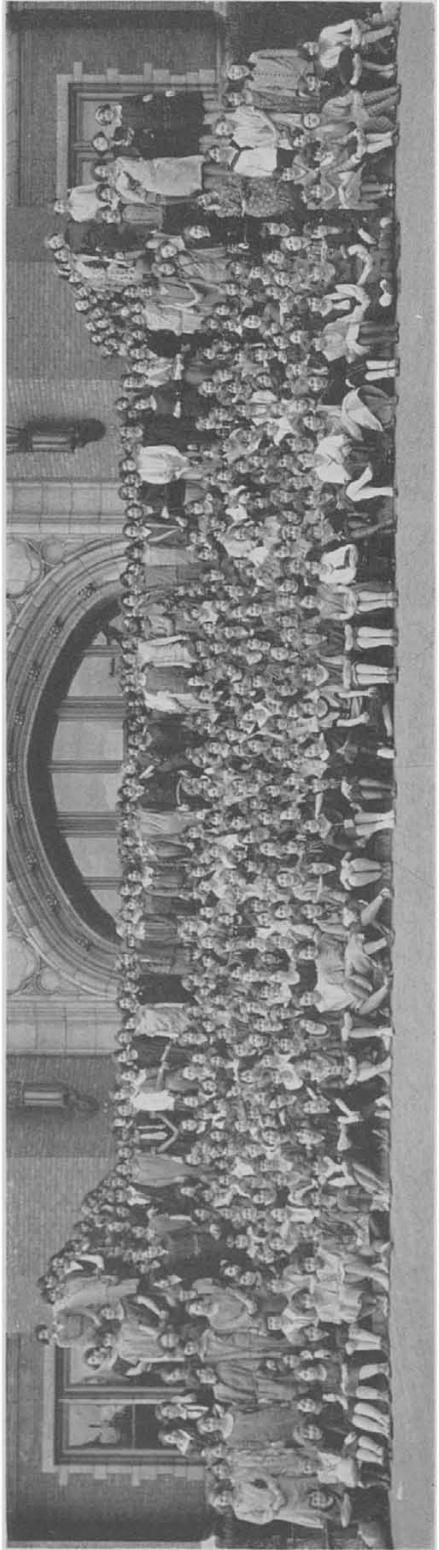

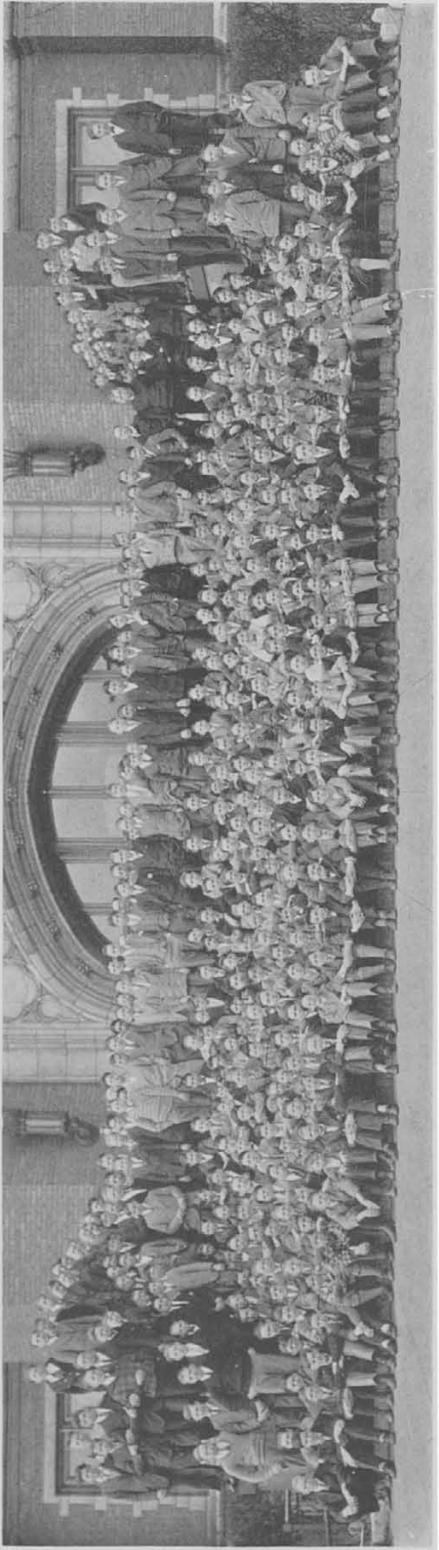

"They've developed not only mentally, but physically. The Sophs have entered the athletic events with vim and made good. And remember the Sophomores are ardent rooters!"

"The 'C' Graders of '26 have worked hard and played hard, not only for their own personal benefit, but mainly to make the best kind of Juniors and Seniors in the future. It is their highest hope, their loftiest aim to be worthy of Hughes!"

The Sophomore Spirits stopped for lack of breath.

The Junior Spirit met the glance of the Senior Spirit, "May be we misunderstood."

ROSALIND KAHN, '28.

A TRAGEDY IN ONE ACT

THE curtain rises! Enter at the left the proud and regal Senior followed by his ardent admirers, the Junior, the Sophomore and, last of all, the lowly Freshman, with a pair of shaking knees and wobbling elbows.

The scene is laid in the great open spaces where the color scheme is delightfully carried out in several delicate, fresh, shades of green.

The four brave comrades stand unafraid in a dangerous portion of the wood as they bid each other tearful but fond farewells. (The audience weeps!)

Then the shouts and cries of the Indians are heard as they attack the pale faces. "Chief Latinae" stands proudly at the head of his warriors while they shoot their deadly arrows at our heroes. "Oral English," one of "Latinae's" most dangerous helpers engages in combat with his mortal enemy, the Senior. The fight is terrible, but short! They fall, each vanquished by the other. The Junior is hit on the head by "Francais," but manages to rally sufficiently to trip up "Francais," who falls and kills himself on one of his own arrows. The Junior dies with the look of a martyr on his face! The Sophomore fights bravely, but in vain; the indomitable "Math" kills him with a well-aimed spear.

"Algebra" with a great cry leaps upon the Freshman, but "Science," who is also about to leap upon him, becomes slightly confused and kills "Algebra" instead. The Freshman hacks at "Science" until  $\text{CO}_2$  and  $\text{H}_2\text{O}$  are no more.

At last the Freshman alone stands proudly above his fallen comrades and defeated foes, and cries in a loud, warlike voice:

"I was the last to enter, but I am also the last to leave!"

The curtain falls!

HORTENSE DAVIS, '29.

FAREWELL, DEAR HUGHES

The class of loyal '26,
Now bids Old Hughes farewell,
We welcome you of '27;
But first, a story we must tell.

It cannot be four years ago
We crossed these portals dear,
Aghast with terror and dismay,
Full many a time we shed a tear.

Next year as stately Sophs we came
Forgetful of the past;
And then the year went rushing on,
We Juniors were, at last.

But all too soon the years have flown,
We Seniors, bid adieu,
With hope the coming classes will
Bring Hughes renown most true.

We part with many a backward glance
Toward her, we'll ne'er forget;
And thank dear "Hughes" for all she's done
To free our lives from vain regret.

ANNA DOMBAR, '26.

SCHULTZ TRIES NEW SUIT

GET-THE-MONEY, NEVADA — Attorney Reichard today made a last plea for a decision in favor of his client, Miss Lena Windland, proprietor of the Windland Wind Mill Wheel Co., in her suit against John Weiss, multi-millionaire, tooth-picker manufacturer, for alienation of attention to the business she blows about. Miss Windland and Weiss had formerly been very good friends. The break-up was the result of Weiss's telling a secret which Miss Windland had asked him to keep. This secret, he confided to Roselyn Touff, a manicurist who also occasionally worked for Miss Windland. One day Miss Touff said, "Oh, wot I know about U." This caused Miss Windland to worry and distracted her attention from her business to such an extent that the standing of the firm was impaired. It turned out that Weiss had told Roselyn the secret, which was that Lena had a runner in her sock while out at Swizz Gartens. Miss Windland has sued Weiss for $90,000,000,000 damages. Judge Stanton Schultz is presiding over the case.

EMINENT SCIENTIST MAKES STARTLING STATEMENT

Prof. Oscar Schmidt, Dean of Dumbnology, says that he has scientifically proven Mars to be more than 20 miles from the earth. It is yet to be seen what Prof. Emil Molfenter, of the Zoo Gardens, will reply to this baseless statement.

ENGAGED TO RAJAH

News of the engagement of Miss Mary Bryan to Ed. Kerksmar, Rajah of Beuegala in British India, has just been received here. Miss Bryan was spending the winter abroad and met the Rajah while in Paris. A whirlwind courtship followed and the engagement was announced in Nice by a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Forbes, Cincinnati friends of Miss Bryan.

FOWL DEED DONE Suspect Arrested

MUDVILLE - ON - THE - FACE, July 8 — Patrolman Steman, hearing an excited cluck in Judge Yanney's henyard last night, while on his way to Swick's Swell Speakeasy, stopped to investigate. "Who," he thundered, "is in there?" Receiving no answer, he turned to leave when suddenly it dawned on him that whoever was there might have kept silent. He returned to find only muddy footprints. After a conference with Detective Charles Schuch, the footprints were followed and led to the home of Louis "Dutch" Schrader, a well-known Irish clubman, very prominent in the Central Avenue district. The culprit now rests in Bob Myer's Home for Homeless Hobos.

INTERNATIONAL CROOK CAPTURED Police Officer Courteously Crowns Him

Lieutenant George Pfau, of the Traffic Department, announced early this morning the capture of a desperate criminal known to the police as Ed. Schroth, alias "Educated Ed." Lieutenant Pfau captured this villainous confidence man after a long chase in his little Ford Airplane, provided for the police by City Manager Koehler. The thief confessed that he was the one who recently stole the jewels of Lady Owelottsky, formerly Miss Martha Maguire of this city.

FEMININE CLUB HOLDS TEA-BATTLE

Miss Mildred Stephenson, woman politician, whose slogan is "Man's Place is in the Home," was honored by a tea-fight at the monthly meeting of the Feminine Club. Miss Dorothy Tabler who is President of this society, which admits nothing, presided over the assembly, which was well attended by some of the world's greatest women prize fighters. Among those who juggled an eggshell tea-cup were: Miss Evelyn Thomas, ex-bobbed hair bandit; Miss Marian Story, catalytic agent for Reel False Teeth; Miss Estelle Tavel, Simon Legree's only rival; Miss Edrienne Trenary, assistant secretary to the assistant secretary of Goldfish Counter's Association at the Atlantic Ocean Aquarium; Miss Marie Vornberg, proprietor of Vornberg's Vild Vest Show; Miss Betty White, owner of White's Wide Shoe Store; and Misses Twachtman and Weiss, waitresses at the One or Two Double-Decker Restaurant.

SOCIETY AGOG OVER ELOPEMENT OF GUM KING'S DAUGHTER

LONG NECKER, NEW JOISEY — The 401 was set agog today over the elopement of Miss Ima Richman, daughter of Lawrence Richman, the chewing gum magnet, with Albert Schroth, the millionaire song-writer. There is a great difference in their ages, Miss Richman being but ten years old while Al is ninety-five. Mr. Richman, who makes Richman's Rubber Gum, is said to be greatly incensed over the elopement. Miss Richman is said to have been the inspiration which caused Schroth to write, "She's a Deer, Even Though I'd Rather Have The Doe."

CONTEST

The Carl Nemenz Life Insurance Company of Buffalo held a contest recently for its employees and agents, who competed for the various rewards. The winners were several Cincinnatians. Bernest Dixon, Roswell Fornay, and George Gohs.

RAILROAD OUTING HUGE SUCCESS

The employees of the Ralph Momborg Railroad Company held an outing at Hettie Schneider's Amusement Park. Races and contests of all kinds were the feature of the day. Miss Mary Eskew, winner of the beauty contest, awarded many prizes.

PROMINENT CINCINNATIANS ATTEND BANQUET

CUTMUD, OHOWHI — A banquet was tendered last evening to Professor Phillip Riddinger, of Death Gulch University. This banquet was to celebrate the winning of the Ignoble Prize for Pneumatics. Many men of prominence throughout the state were present at the celebration which took place in the Hiprice Cafe, of the Twa-Bitts Hotel. Among the noted men assembled were: C. Stigler, President of the Flybinitic Trust Company; Carlo Weber, Secretary to the Cincinnati Pen-Holder's Union, Local No. Chu-Chu; Carla Tackenberg, six-day bicycle champ; W. Weisman, editor of "Hot Stuff;" J. Ruel, owner of the Ritz Night Club; and S. Wolfson, author of "Foolish Houses and Hearts." Senator Brooks Zeiher acted as toastmaster.

LOSES SUIT - ASKS RESTITUTION

PIKEVILLE, KY.— Geo. Stephans, traveling salesman lost a suit while playing poker with one, Mayor Howard Zeuffle. He has now entered a suit in the circuit court, asking that Mayor Zeuffle return the suit which was a borrowed suit. Judge Ben. Ross says he will make the punishment to suit the crime.

Dr. Louise Hillard has found a new and sure cure for insomnia. Dr. Hillard has spent four years in her laboratories and her efforts have been rewarded. It is said the development of this formula will bring millions to its owner.

Attorney Veirs Buck has left for New York, where she intends to practice law and social economy. She will room at Elizabeth Kleb's Kosy Klub-House. _____

The Rev. and Mrs. Gerald Barker are entertaining on Wednesday evening with a dinner in honor of Mr. Carl Appel, formerly of Cincinnati, who has become known in Mission Circles through his work in Siberia. Mr. Appel is soon to wed Miss Irma Kohl, a fascinating young shop-girl. _____

Walter Broehrman has brought to Cincinnati his famous "Famous Follies," including Gene Bauer, Hazel Keener and Evelyn Scheingold, the trio that has startled New York with its originality and grace. _____

Among the coming attractions for next week is Dr. Joe Bell's Infamous Medecin Troupe. Dr. Bell has gathered a galaxy of entertainers who assist in amusing the public to whom he tries to sell Bell's Balsam Bitters for Bald Boys. He includes in the company, Kenneth Arata, America's Nightingale, and as a special feature, Louis Gerson, commonly called the "Most Comical Cuss in Captivity." Tickets for the performance may be obtained at Pat Calvert's Golf and Candy Shoppe. _____

One of the cleverest vaudeville skits of the year can be seen at the Shanty Theater this week. The Max & Co. act is especially good. Max Litwin, vaudeville's strong man, is ably assisted by Angie Hays, well known exponent of the Kankakee, America's latest dance craze, and Betty Calderine, prophetess of Pall-Mall. The most exciting scene is that in which Miss Calderine breaks a vase over Max's head. It is rumored that these two artists are soon to wed. _____

Among recent publications has appeared an interesting work by Dorothy Augspurger, "The Duties of Women in Politics." Miss Augspurger is remembered as an ardent supporter in Governor Marting's campaign last election. Another absorbing publication of different type is Ruth Schaeffer's latest appearance in print, "How to Hold Your Husband," a cook book in five volumes. Miss Schaeffer should be experienced, having recently been granted her tenth divorce by Judge Blackston. _____

The Symphony Orchestra will open its season next week under its new director, Eric Bergman. This marks the initial appearance of Miss Evelyn Adams as concert pianist, and also the return of Stella Neurnberger from an extensive European tour. The Cincinnati Orchestra lost an excellent musician when Ira Falkenstein decided to take up his residence permanently in Paris, but it consoles itself in having Gilbert Smith, who shows great skill. Symphony goers are familiar with Mr. Falkenstein, as he was usually the last musician to arrive. _____

FRONT WHEELS STOLEN FROM AUTO

As Miss Dorothy Simpson, wealthy miner from New York, entered her garage last night, started the engine of her car, and prepared to back out, without warning the front end of the machine went down with a thud. Amazed, she climbed out and found that someone had removed the front wheels, leaving the car jacked up. Her chauffeur is suspected.

Mr. B. Heines has just returned from India where he has been doing missionary work. He will speak on "The Indian Woman," at the home of Miss Stella Nuernberger, another recently returned missionary. Serve cold and garnish with applesauce.

The eminent composer, Mademoiselle Frankel, will play several of her selections at a meeting of the Bond Hill Music Club on Thursday.

Miss Helen Gregory, the charming young heiress, has just left for an extensive trip of Europe which will take in England, France, Spain and Italy. Miss Sarah Rosenberg will have the tough job of chaperoning the impulsive child.

Miss Sophia Hochstrasser will give a lecture at the Art Academy, Tuesday afternoon, on Modern Art.

Miss Virginia Camden is in Cincinnati. She has many interesting stories to tell of her social work in the West Virginia mountains, where she instructed Howard Meyers, phenomenal book-agent, in the various arts.

A BIT OF PHILOSOPHY

In life's weary trouble,
Laff a bit.
If your dream was just a bubble,
Laff a bit.
If your roadway is hard going
And your weariness is showing,
Keep a constant faith a-glowing.
Laff a bit!

If your life path's getting ruffer,
Then just smile.
If the going's getting tuffer,
Then just smile.
If misfortune hangs around you,
And her imps should try to down you,
Keep your courage, tho' they hound
you,
And just smile.

Tho your unluck is not ridden,
Laff it off.
If successes are cloud-hidden,
Laff it off.
When your sun is in the sky
And you're crowned with honors high
tho'
To misfortune's imps then cry,
"Laff that off."

By PHIL OSSOFY, '26.

A TOAST

Our Hughes is a salad,
In which we may see
Spice, oil and vinegar
All do agree.

Our freshman's the lettuce
So tender and green,
Our soph is the mustard
With bite quick and keen.

The junior's the oil
When added with care,
Makes the senior supreme,
A blend the most rare.

IF I HAD A SHIP

If I had a ship,
I would sail away
To search for contentment and rest
O'er a sea of gentle spray.
If I had a ship.

I would sail away
Far from the haunts of men.
My contentment and rest may be lying
Just o'er the horizon's bend,
If I had a ship.

Maybe I would go afar
To some unknown island in the sea.
Perhaps there'd be peace and rest
A-waiting there for me,
If I had a ship.

Who knows? I might sail to France
To see the cathedrals there,
Maybe I'd find in one of these
My peace and contentment rare,
If I had a ship.

I might set sail for old Japan
In cherry blossom time;
Or contentment and rest would come, at last
In still another clime,
If I had a ship.

If I had a ship,
Having found my contentment and rest,
I guess I'd sail way again
'Cause I love adventure best.
Wish I had a ship!

HARRY ANDERSON, '26.

THE COUNTRY

Do you love the country as I do?
Do you love
the green grass in the fields,
the blue sky flecked with clouds,
overhead?
Do you love to walk
down a grass-grown lane,
hear the bees humming
among fragrant apple blossoms?
Have you heard the summer breeze
sighing through the lofty trees?
Have you walked under elms
as in great cathedral aisles?
Do you love to lie
under summer skies,
listening to the drowsy buzz
of bumble bees,
and the noisy squawking of the dusky crows
gathering in the next corn field?
Do you love to hear the placid brook
flowing on and on, you know not where?
Do you love the purple iron weed
in the meadows,
and the goldenrod along the road?
You do? Then
you love the country as I do.

SENIOR JUDGMENT DAY

You seniors now, that strut all through the halls,
With stuck-out chest and proudly tilted nose,
And whom the thought of lessons ne'er appalls,
You cannot hold that hard-earned pose!

You've worried through your lessons all the year,
Although without much bother it is true;
Detention even, lower classmen's fear
Has lately little terror held for you.

You're very practised in that noble art,
Wherefore your teachers' "bluffs" you've learned to call;
But, oh, how very little and forlorn
You're going to feel where now you feel so tall.

You've made the persecuted Freshmen feel
That they were really awfully green and small;
But watch your step, be careful, Senior proud,
You know you'll be a Freshie in the fall.

RUTH LAYNE, '26.

TO A HUGHES CLOCK

Tick-tock, Hughes clock, nor cease thy motion,
Slow thou art, it is my notion,
Pond'ring ev'ry lengthy minute,
Stretching day for all that's in it.

Lazy, turtle, snail-like creature,
With your hands hide numbered features;
And thy face grown white with shame.
Slow as you, I'd do the same.

Thee, I ask acceleration,
Save me from this recitation.
Sound of bell, I long have sought,
Save me, and I save a naught.

Tick on, clock, but speed thy motion,
Slow thou art, yet 'tis my notion,
Years to come, when mem'ries die,
"Tick-tock" still will bring a sigh.

T. N. TIEMEYER, '26.

ODE TO MOTHER

Her skin is like the lovely ermine fur,
So pure, so soft, so clean, so white.
Her hair with each and every curl,
Reminds me of the waving grain
In summer's golden light.

Her eyes are like forget-me-nots,
So clear, so loving, kind and true;
Are clearer far than ocean blue,
Or mirror lake or mountain hue.

Her lips are like two rubies bright,
That sparkle in the sun's pure light.
But best of all, her sacred soul
Is purer far than lily white.

MARSHALL C. STAIBLER, '27.

AT HIS LOCKER

He stood before his locker door;
His eye was vacant, wide and wet;
His fingers toyed the combination,
His curving lips grew tense and set.

A left-hand swirl, again he tried,
There were but ten short seconds
left;
His lips moved with his counting vain,
He turned, reversed, with fingers
deft.

Then at the whirr of tardy bell,
That lock, a student's bane,
With clang and rattle, loud as battle,
Let go, swung harmless on its chain.

MY BEACON LIGHT

A year is o'er, one year of life,
Of four years linked in one;
I stand atop that world of strife,
Look toward the setting sun;
And then, with eager hopes held high,
Which are my beacon light,
I turn me to the eastern sky,
Prepared again to fight!

The way was often hard to find,
Sometimes the trail was dim;
But then there was that guide of mine,
That hope that I would win.
No matter where I've wandered far,
From my resolve to gain
The best, my guiding beacon star
Has led me back again.

My star was true, my light burned clear,
Nor faltered day nor night;
And now that I have naught to fear,
My hopes burn still more bright,
For I have won the fight at last,
Have made my dreams come true;
And now that one full year is past,
I'm glad to start anew.

A year is o'er, one year of life,
But new years wait for me;
I stand atop the world of strife,
The setting sun to see.
And then, with eager hopes held high,
Which are my beacon light,
I turn me to the eastern sky
Prepared again to fight!

UN-SPECIFIC

A thing-a-ma-jig and a what-yo-ma-call-it
Took a walk down the street one day;
The thing-a-ma-jig lost his thing-um-bob,
You-know-where-I-mean on the way.
But then along came whats-his-name
With his friend oh-you-know-who,
Gave a you-know-what to the thing-a-ma-jig,
And a brand new doo-jigger, too!

SUMMER SCHOOL

In days of yore, when children bad,
Their lessons tended not,
Their parents took them on their knees,
And whipped them on the spot.

But now, these children, bad and bold,
For breaking every rule,
Imprisoned are, the summer long,
And sent to summer-school!

ORGANIZATIONS

C.F. Schuch

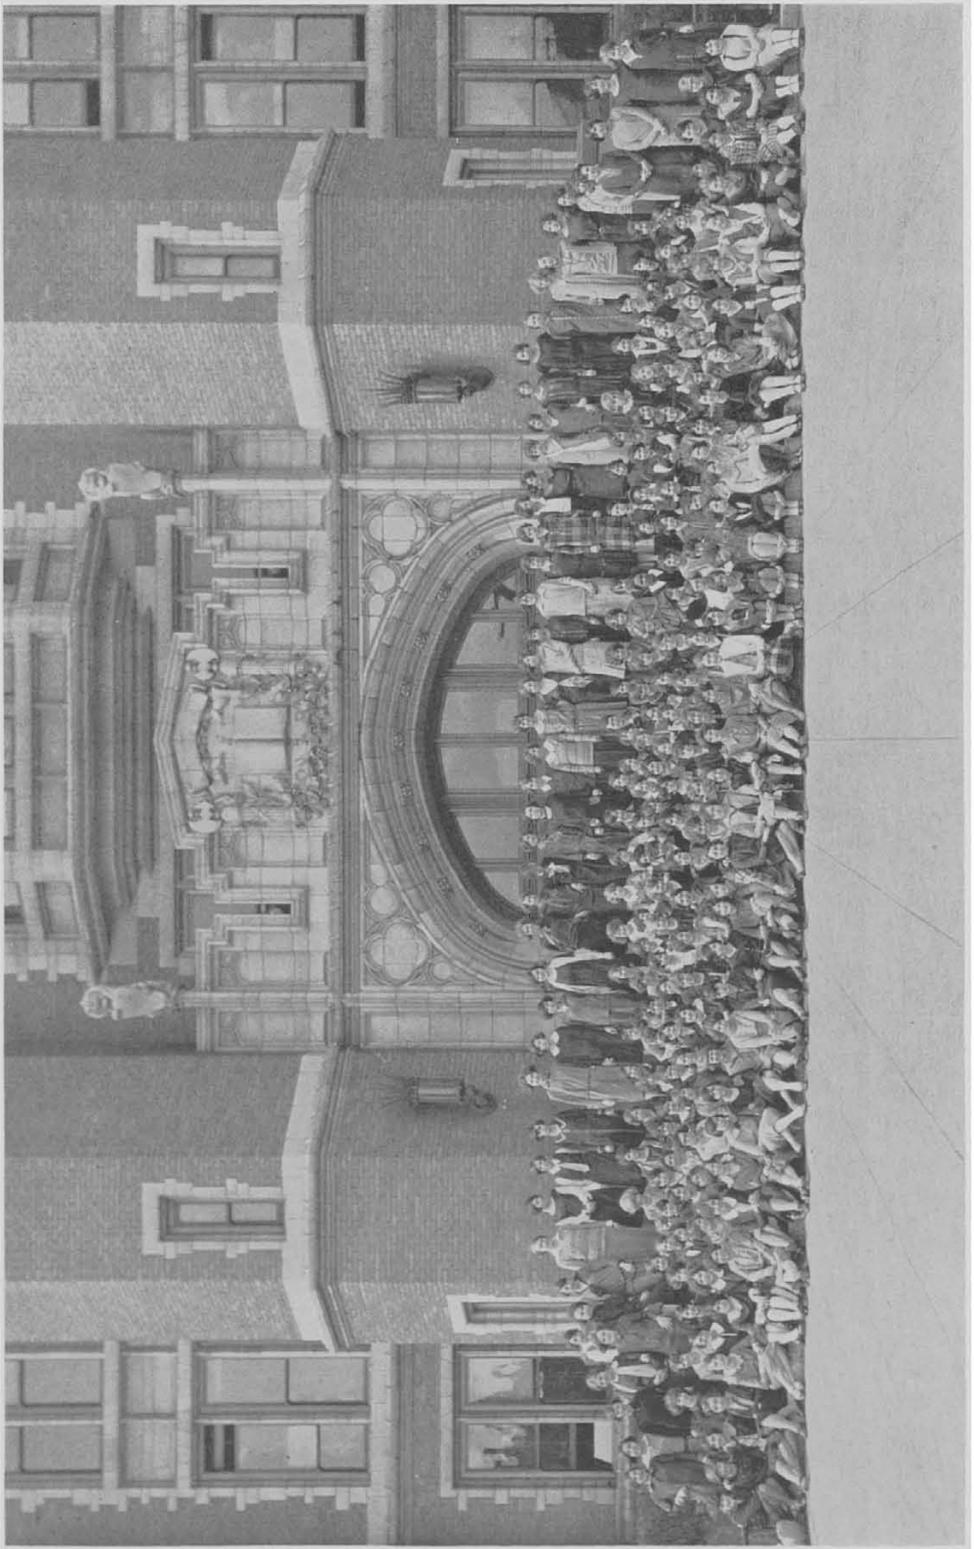

LONG ago in Old Hughes a class of Senior girls organized the Art League with a purpose of beautifying the school. They invited all the students of the various grades into this great society. In order to carry on their noble work, however, they decided that all the pupils who joined should contribute a certain amount of money each month; but this payment was to be entirely voluntary. The aim of this contribution was to use it for the purchase of a gift at the end of the year. Years later, these girls visited the school and found that the corridors and walls were no longer dark and bare, but that, as if by magic, they had suddenly become bright and beautiful. They found the walls adorned with paintings of famous old master artists, and in the corners of the corridors they found renowned sculpture works. Their hearts beat rapturously as they gazed at this beautiful sight, and they were indeed proud of their beloved Alma Mater.

From Old Hughes the Art League was carried to New Hughes — our Hughes, and it has triumphantly existed until the present day. To see the result of its works one has only to walk through the corridors of Hughes. There in the front corridor are the Memorial Lunettes, the Winged Victory, Augustus Caesar, Minerva, the Parthenon Frieze, the Donatella Fountains, and Clement Barnhorn's Rookwood Fountain, "The Boy and the Dolphin," all of which add an artistic splendor to the school. Here and there are copies of old masterpieces which adorn the walls of Hughes. During the last few years the Art League has specialized in making a collection of canvasses from the brushes of Cincinnati artists, Duveneck, Sharp, Meakin, Mr. and Mrs. Wessel, Herrman, Weis, Volkert, Wareham, Mr. and Mrs. Alke, Lillian Whitteker, Dixie Selden, Louis Endres, Rettig, Jennings, and canvasses of other Cincinnati artists, which attract the attention of visitors, thus carrying the name of Hughes far and wide.

The most recent gifts of the Art League are "Solitude," by Frank Myers, and "The Sails," by Reginald Grooms.

Let us hope that this organization will exist forever, and accomplish even more than it has in past years, towards making our school, "Hughes Beautiful."

ACCORDING to the custom at Hughes, the first two weeks of school found the girls of the Honor League with bright red felt bands on their arms, ready and willing to guide the dazed Freshmen through the net-work of halls and corridors. In order to establish a more friendly relationship with the "D"-Grade girls, and to help them to grasp the Hughes spirit, every member of the Honor League received two or three first-year girls as "Little Sisters." Being a Freshies' Aid and a Big Sister were things which we had all looked forward to very eagerly for three years.

This year another opportunity to render service to Hughes has been given to the Honor League. A Service Committee was appointed to help with the Emergency Room, and the girls have done this work faithfully and well.

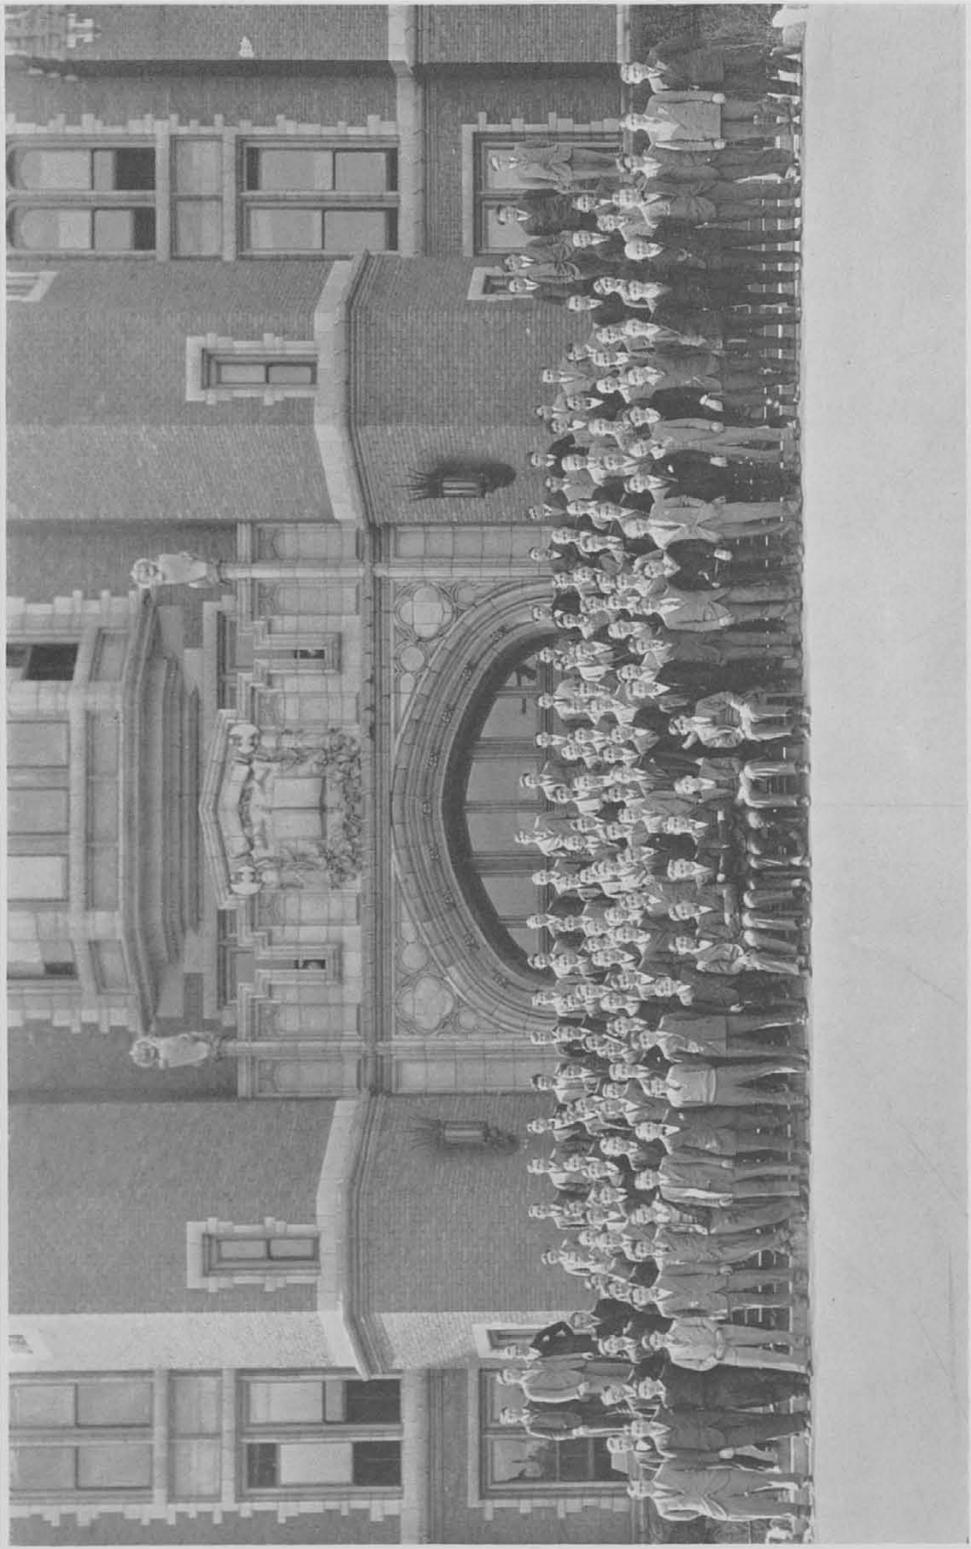

The Southern Ohio Teachers' Association held a meeting in Hughes last December; and about fifty girls helped these teachers, who were strangers, to find their respective rooms.

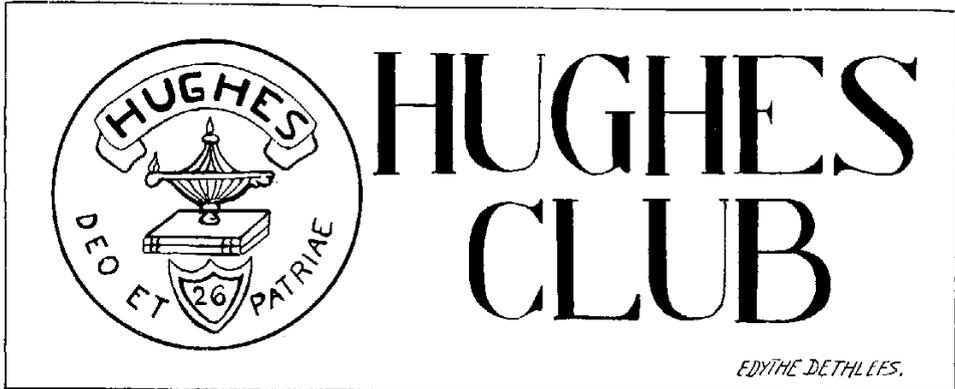

Our monthly meetings have been a source of inspiration to all of us, for, midst the hurry and rush of everything, they have reminded us that we must do the little things right today, in order to be prepared for the big things of tomorrow; and that we must learn to face issues fairly and squarely, and to fight them out by ourselves. Thus we have endeavored to carry away from these meetings something to add to our character and to help us in our future career.

We have sincerely appreciated the untiring efforts of our sponsor, Miss M. Julia Bentley, who has urged us at all times to apply the motto of the Honor League to our everyday life:

"To do the thing I know is true,
And should not be ashamed to do;
To help to make some others see
The thing that so appeals to me."

CATHRYN M. SPENCE, '26

ALL Senior and Junior boys whose grades are passing and whose conduct is satisfactory are eligible to join the Hughes Club. A faculty committee composed of Mr. Merry, Mr. Simon and Mr. Kizer, together with the executive committee of the Club, approve all applications for membership. It should be the aim of every boy at Hughes to account for himself in a creditable manner in order to secure himself membership in the Hughes Club, when he becomes a Junior.

This Club has been organized for social purposes and to aid the school in all ways possible. The meetings are held every Friday at six p. m., at the Y. M. C. A. The boys eat their dinner in dining room number two and after the meeting all who care to play pool, bowl, or to engage in other recreations, enjoy the evening together. At the meeting, leading men of our city talk to us. Among the faculty speakers this year were Mr. Merry, Mr. Lotter, Mr. Sluss and Mr. Berry.

The Hughes Club this year has put some new soap containers in the wash rooms, kept them filled, sold novelties for athletic affairs, aided in the lunch room at school, and bought extra uniforms for the band.

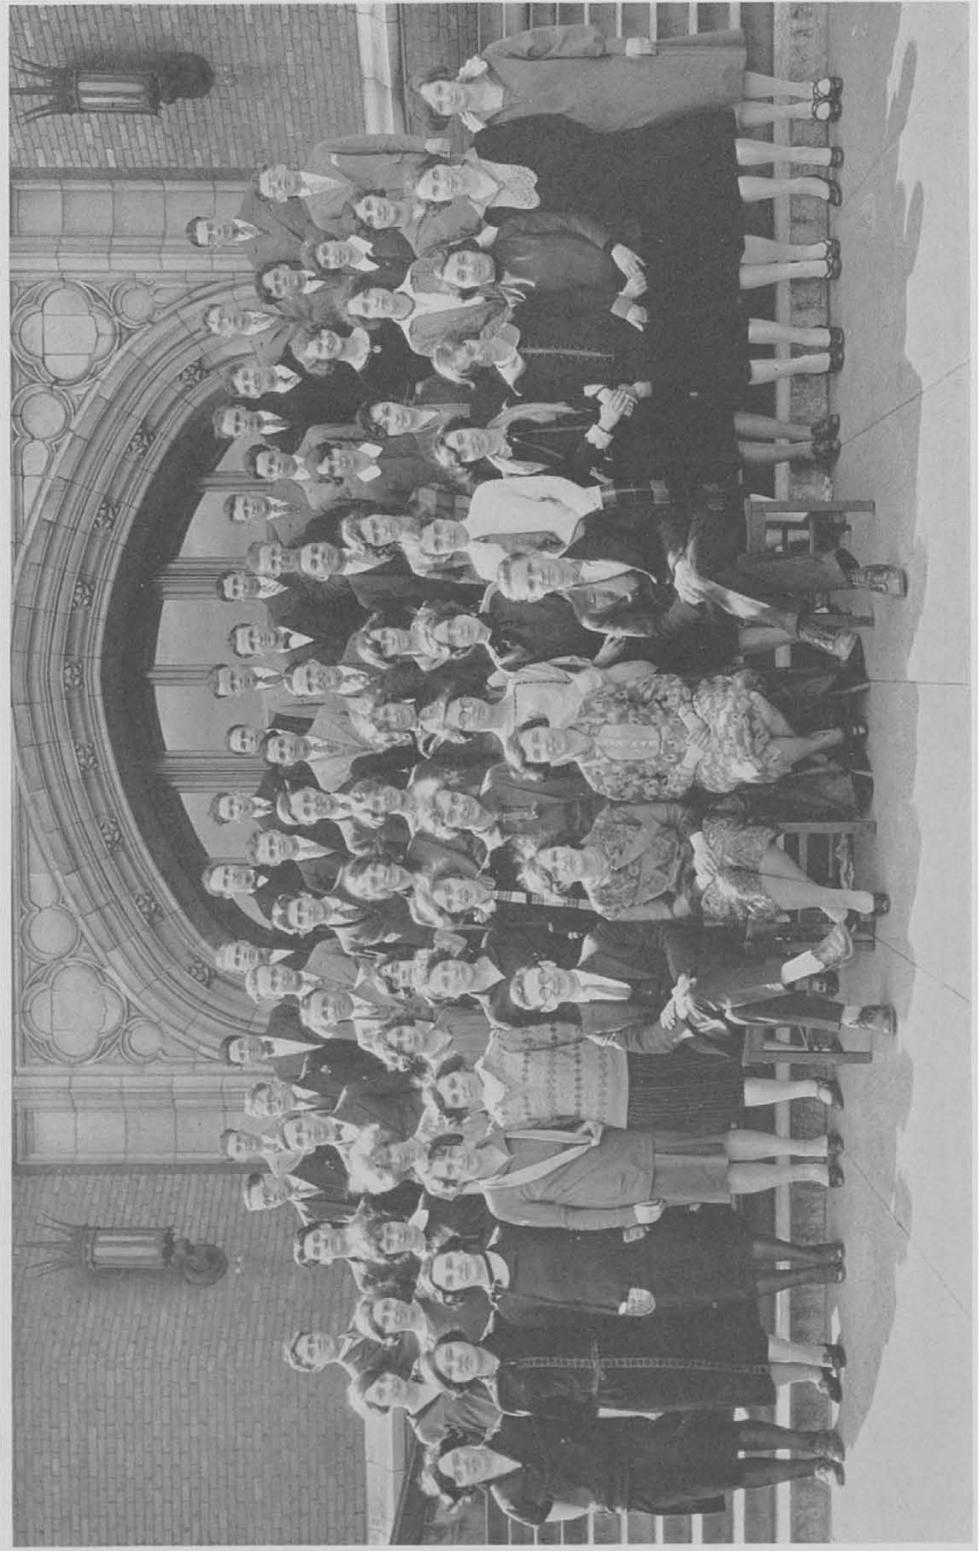

Hughes Club members always look forward to their annual dances, their annual banquet cooked by Mr. Merry, himself, and their annual overnight hike. This year we have instituted an alumni committee whose duty it is to notify the alumni of the dates of all our annual celebrations.

We have our own room at school. The members of last year presented a desk; this year's Club will also add to the furnishings.

A "Scrap Book" is being kept this year, containing sketches of all our events. Eric Bergman is the author and Lloyd Wuestefeld is the illustrator. At the time of this writing, the book has not been completed, but we all look for its success and may those who follow us increase its success.

This year the membership of one hundred sixty-five boys is the largest to date. With the ever-increasing membership, it is a known fact that the standard of the Club is keeping pace with its increasing membership. The Club greatly appreciates the earnest and loyal work of its members, and is deeply indebted to Mr. Kizer for his untiring efforts in being its sponsor. Among this year's membership are four captains of our athletic teams. It is indeed gratifying to see the captains of our athletic teams take an active part in the Hughes Club and work loyally in carrying their teams to a victory and their Club to a success. The Club this year owes much of its success to George Pfau, captain of the football team, and "All-Cincinnati Center," our president, whose executive ability has contributed much to our success. May the future Hughes Club have the loyal and active membership that the Hughes Club of 1926 has had.

SENIOR Sages — that sounds awe-inspiring, and yet we're not such a formidable society. At least we know how to combine learning with fun, and in our programs we have striven to attain entertainment as well as educational value.

Miss Kruckemeyer mapped out a very interesting plan for us to follow — the study of the development of the drama. At our first meeting Dean Chandler, of the University of Cincinnati, talked to us about Ibsen and his work. Next, in striking contrast to the stern realism of the Nordic dramatist, came light, charming satire of Sheridan. Then, from the study of the old-fashioned miracle plays, we passed to that of the motion picture, and Mr. Stiegler, of the Times-Star, discussed the subject from the critic's point of view. In February, Professor Ogden gave a speech on Moliere, while March was, for the most part, taken up with preparations for our grand "social" at which three very delightful plays were presented. The rest of the year was devoted to the modern American drama.

Of all the organizations at Hughes, the Sages have perhaps the programs that are most varied and most able to engage attention — anything from informal talks by members of the club to interesting speeches by outside visitors; from the queerly-costumed little scenes of "The Rivals," to the crowning productions at the evening affair.

Our year has been an enjoyable one, and we wish the Sages of '27 the same success.

ON OCTOBER 28, 1925, about forty of us gathered in Room 106 to reorganize the Junior Sages for 1925-26. The following officers were elected: Frederick Ficken, President, Ann Joy Schiff, Vice President and James W. Speer, Secretary and Treasurer. The Club, however, was doomed to disappointment, for late in November President Ficken moved away, leaving the Sages without their peerless president. A good fairy came to the rescue though, in the guise of Ann Joy Schiff, who has carried on the work of the club with vigor and success.

During one of the early meetings Miss Wagner, our sponsor, gave us an outline of the general topics upon which we were to direct our thoughts and energy. Pantomime, one-act plays, and original work are the topics which occupied the time of the Sages of '25 and '26.

We have had several fine programs, consisting of music by Hannah Grad, Ida Loshinsky and Betty Zimmerman, pianists, Ruth Sippel, voice, and Wolford Gradison, violin. We had a good deal of original work, consisting of poems, essays and compositions by Leroy Bock, Theodosia Burris, Marrianna Jenkins, Marshal Staebler, William Horstman, Ruth Messerschmidt, Pearl Miller, Janet Ferris, Hannah Grad, and Fred Kuether. One play was worked up, called "The Exchange." Miss Wagner is working on two other plays to be given soon. Esther Glueck, Pessa Polasky and Charles Becker put on a pantomime, "The Ballad of an Oyster Man." Miss Wagner entertained one meeting by reading poems from the students' magazine, the Gleam. These programs have brought out a great amount of talent in music, composition and acting.

I think I am right when I say, for the whole club as well as for myself, that the Sages are doing very well this year, and have derived much from the club, and are handing the traditions of the Sages on to the next class as clean as they were handed to us. We will leave the Junior Sages with a keener and brighter perception of our work as we anticipate the good times in store for us as Senior Sages next year.

THE "WeC's" are new this year at Hughes, being organized during the third month of school. The purpose of the club is to give C-Graders a chance in Hughes' dramatic life. The membership is limited to those Sophomores passing in all subjects except one, and having an English grade of at least eighty.

Meetings are held once a month. The first two were devoted to organization. Then followed preparation for the first play, which was given March the second, after school. It was a one-act drama, entitled, "The Maker of Dreams." A cast is at present working on "Lonesomelike," a one-act play, mingling humor and pathos.

It is planned to give one play a month, thereby allowing each member of the club a chance for a part in at least one of them.

THE FRESHMAN SAGES

THE wise seer who said "Freshies" were just like measles, was right; we've broken out again and the result is the "Freshman Sages."

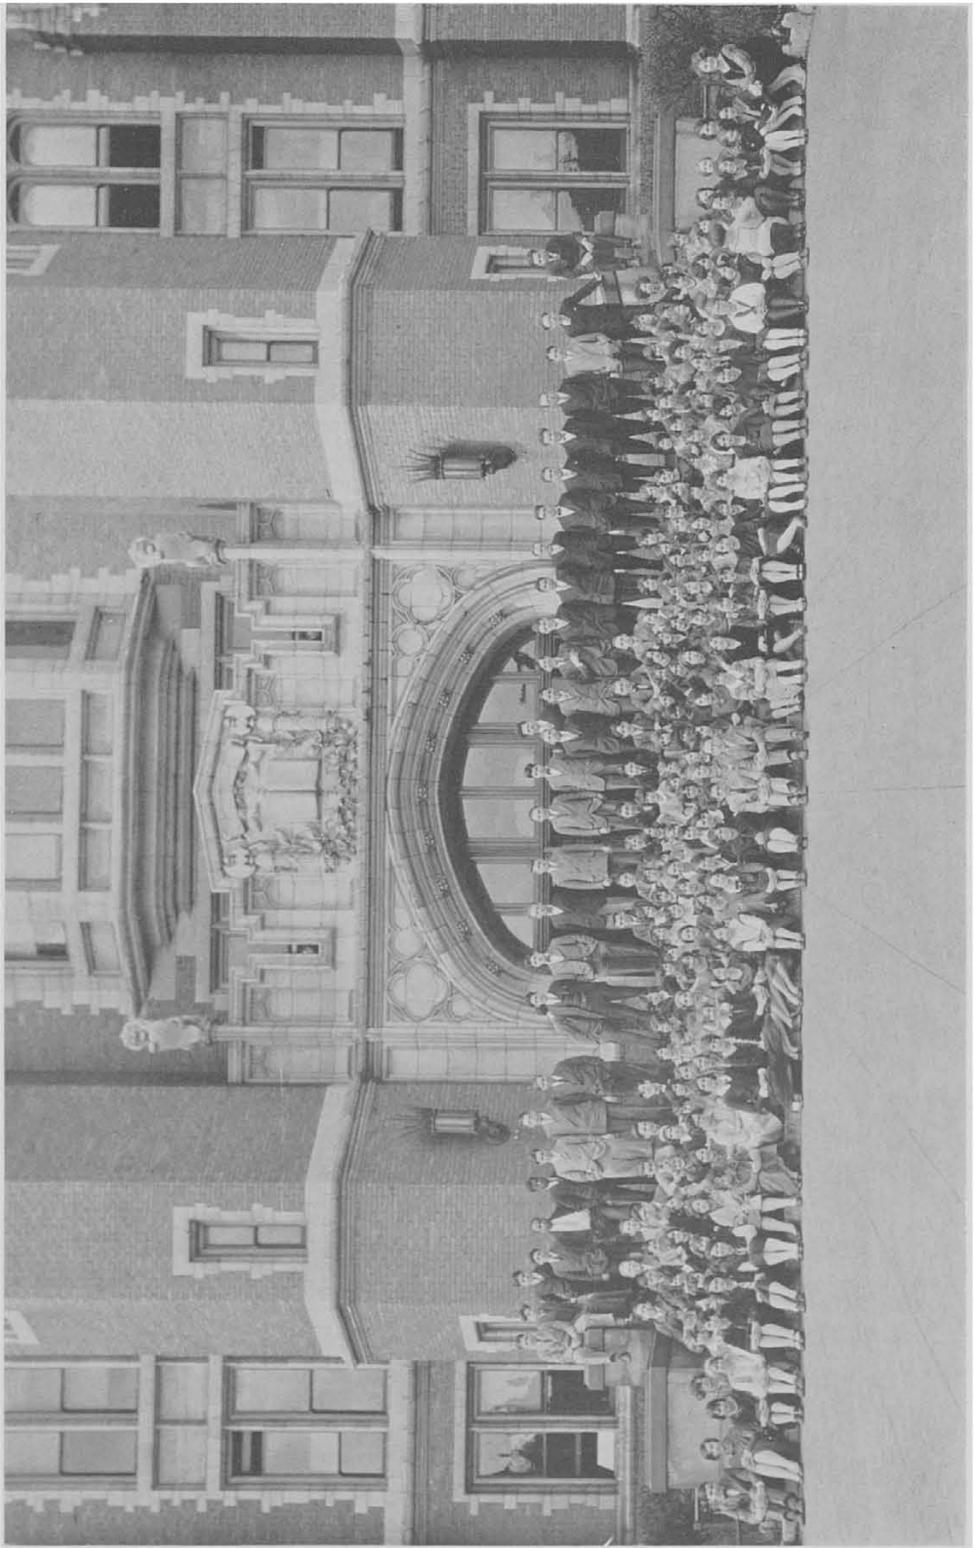

There never has been a club in which D-Graders could exploit their dramatic ability, so we took the reins in our own hands and organized the club. Mrs. Persons kindly consented to be our sponsor, and under her able direction we have thus far produced two one-act plays.

We were so encouraged by the success of our first attempt, a farce comedy, entitled, "Wisdom Teeth," that, for the second time, a play which required much more talent and skill was chosen. In this, a fantasy called "Thumbs and Theories," we made a modest attempt at setting and lighting, which added greatly to the general effect. Then too, in this sketch the little Egyptian princess had to remain motionless for over fifteen minutes, which we will all agree is a very difficult feat for a Freshman.

Nevertheless, the audience, a good many of whom had come to see the Freshies make fools of themselves, was very attentive and seemed to enjoy our efforts exceedingly.

Really, the Freshies aren't quite so hopeless as the upper classmen believe them to be, but in trying to make them see that, we have quite a job.

THE Latin Club of 1926 has had a very enjoyable year. Its membership has increased, and the interest shown in the club by the members has been most gratifying. It has accomplished its aim, that is, to give the pupils of Latin an inside knowledge of the customs, habits, and institutions of the Romans, other than the Roman knowledge they receive in class.

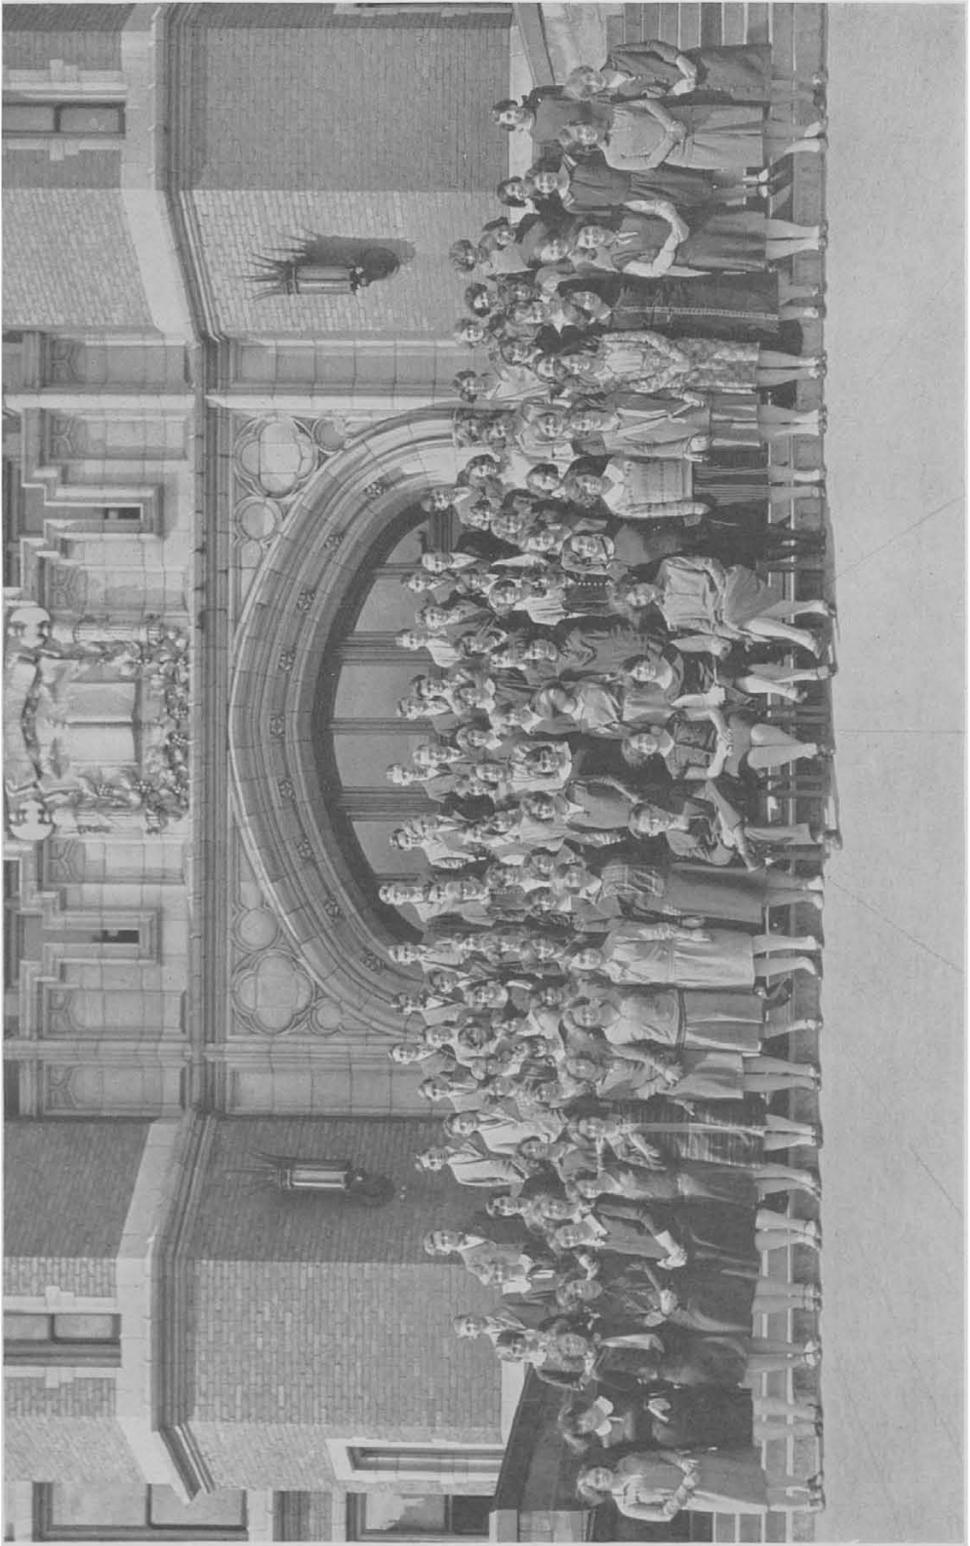

Our programs have always been of such a nature as to be of special interest to Latin students. Our Christmas meeting was particularly enjoyable. At this meeting Latin Christmas songs were sung, an appreciative play was given, and then gifts, each bearing Latin verse, were distributed. At the February meeting prizes were awarded to the members winning the Latin cross-word puzzle contest. One of the best meetings of the year was during March, when our sponsor, Miss Julia Bentley, gave us an extremely interesting talk on her extensive travels in Greece and Rome. At most of our meetings we were especially aided by a group, who led in the singing of Latin songs.

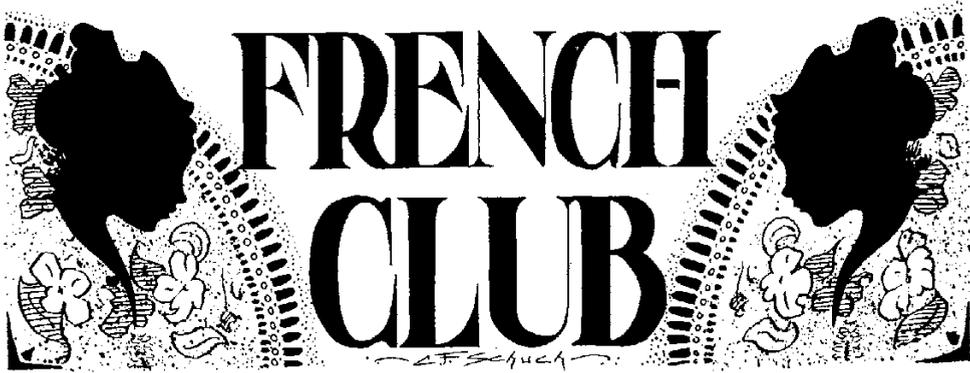

We, of the Latin Club, owe a debt of gratitude to the teachers of Latin, who aided us; but particularly we are greatly indebted to Miss Julia Bentley, our sponsor, whose untiring work for the club has made it such a success. We take this opportunity to thank her for her efforts for our club.

We, of the Latin Club, earnestly believe that through the study of the Roman customs, habits, and institutions we have been broadened.

We leave the Latin Club of '26 to the Class of '27, and we wish that "forsan et haec olim meminisse iuvabit."

AS WE are brought into a closer relationship with our neighbors across the sea, we naturally take a keener interest in their life, amusements and literature. Considering this growing interest, we believe the French Club has aided materially in supplying the French students with a more vivid picture of one of our neighbors, the French.

The meetings, which have dealt with various phases of French life, have not only been very interesting, but highly educational. One meeting, devoted to the study of the great French dramatist, Moliere, presented to us a sketch of his life, one of his plays, "Le Medecin Malgne Lui," and the titles of several other plays in pantomime. As the play was given in French, the cast and the audience were given an excellent opportunity to exercise their knowledge of this language. The members of the club have played French games together, have sung French songs, have attempted to guess French riddles, have read papers written in French, and have spoken French while enjoying the companionship of others with the same interests.

This glimpse of the French Club would be incomplete, however, without giving due credit to the untiring efforts of the French teachers, who have been responsible for making our meetings successful. Thus we congratulate ourselves on our success this year, and predict an ever greater success for the club of 1926-27.

A GAIN the Spanish Club has changed its plan of operation. This year, at the beginning of each meeting, the A, B, C, and D Grades met together in the new auditorium. There they sang Spanish songs, played Spanish games, and gave Spanish plays. At the end of the program, the A and B, and the C and D Grades separated for their respective business meetings. This system has replaced "La Tertulia" of '23 and '24, and "The Spanish Singing School" of '25. The two upper grades have their own officers and have taken again the name of "La Tertulia."

The including of the B, C, and D Grades has greatly increased the attendance of the club and the interest of the pupils in it. The members of the lower grades are, in this way, more capable of carrying on the Club's work, when they become A-Graders. This plan has been a success this year because of the enthusiasm of the Spanish students and the valuable aid of the teachers of Spanish. None of us will forget the games, songs, plays and entertainment on "El Dia De Los Reyes" on January sixth, nor the beautiful and interesting Spanish exhibition at Christmas time. The lovely shawls, linens, small images of Mexican and Spanish life and utensils, and the posters and pictures of the country and its customs, gave us a renewed interest in Spanish, Spanish customs, and the Spanish people. The club has made some of these things possible, and so we hope that it will continue to be active in the affairs at Hughes.

Here's to "La Tertulia!" Revived again, may it live forever!

THE Hughes Math Club should be noted for its versatility. It very successfully combines mathematics with history, and practical things with the most flimsy kind of romance. The history of Hindu-Arabic numerals, for instance, tells how the grocers of ancient lands figured their profits, and how the gas and electric companies and their customers kept up a perpetual feud over the discounts on the bills, for under the old systems of arithmetic neither rhyme nor reason could be made of a calculation inside of a hundred years. Then this same subject jumps from these homely details to such subjects as the rise and fall of the Caliphate of Cordova, and the fall of Constantinople. We hear that Ptolemy, Pharaoh of Egypt, was a devotee of math and that the ancient Greeks believed that they saw a steadily falling curtain of stars in the west. Indeed, if you think that math is dull, come to one of our meetings. Unimaginative people see only a board full of geometry, algebra and trig, but those who know how to look, see the math on a background of delightful things. They see the turbaned Hindu who gave us our numbers, and the Greeks of the Golden Age who studied geometry by tracing their figures in the sand. For many laws in physics and math we are indebted to Archimedes who died in the siege of Syracuse, and much we know of astronomy we owe to some Chaldean High Priest who studied the stars from the flat roof of his temple. The Egyptians and their slaves toiling in the burning sun to build some huge temple to an animal-headed god, or to some god-born king, come to represent architecture.

If such topics as these do not interest you, maybe the fact that we do not pay dues will. Remember that we allow only twenty-five members!

Come all ye faithful and mathematically inclined!

THE pep displayed by our members at the very first meeting showed that this club was off for a big year. We were fortunate in having as our sponsor Mr. Beckert, whose personality is accountable for a very large number of our members.

The purpose of this club is to discuss all of stamp collecting, but in such a way that even non-collectors will be able to understand and enjoy. For the first time in our existence a wide-awake program committee has, fortnightly, at our meeting, enlightened us with snappy talks concerning philately.

Then, at Christmas time, this club had a party which will be talked about for years to come.

We are the only club in the school which had an electric sign to announce the date of its meetings. We are "razzed" every time somebody mentions us. This worries us not. We invite you to look us up next year and become one of us. We assure you a royal welcome, and you may be able to derive so much information that you will become a collector if you are not one already. You could then wear our new pin.

THE Radio Club has had a successful year. We have put the club "on the air" for the first time since 1923, as our new short-wave transmitter, 8CPI, is the first we have had since the days of the old "rock crushers." The set is made to cover the wave length from 30 to 80 meters. The hook-up is of the Hartley type, and splendid results have been obtained with it. During the course of the year the club has also obtained an amateur short-wave receiver of the usual low-loss design. Thus we leave the club with a complete station of the modern type.

The usefulness of the club has been greatly increased by the recent phenomenal development of short-wave communication. These waves travel with the least weakening owing to distance in the daylight, and because of this every member of the club has an opportunity to operate the station. This is a decided improvement over the old days, when the members had to come to school late at night, from Hartwell, Sayler Park, and points west, in order to use the transmitter.

The club meetings are called to order every Wednesday night, in Room 101. There is usually little business to be transacted; and most of the time is taken up in discussion of radio problems, and swapping lies as to the stations we have received, or, in the case of the "hams," worked.

We believe that the work of the club is profitable to its members to a great degree. It is impossible that every one of them should own a transmitter, and the station of the club is to them their only chance to establish contact with the great and fascinating realm of amateur radio. The discussions of radio are of great value to anyone, amateur or broadcast listener.

THE purpose of the Salesmanship Club is to give its members an opportunity to hear what prominent business men have to say on various phases of business. We feel that these talks, which are based on personal experience, teach us valuable lessons which should be helpful to us in the business world. Our Club also brings about a closer acquaintance between the pupils now studying salesmanship and with the graduates of this course, who are applying the principles of salesmanship in some form.

The outstanding event of the year will be the annual salesmanship banquet to be held on April 9. This banquet will be well attended by both the alumni and the present members of the club. The work of our efficient committees and the hearty co-operation of every member makes this a delightful event.

In some of our regular meetings we have had musical entertainments; we were especially fortunate this year in having so many members with musical ability, who gladly entertained us.

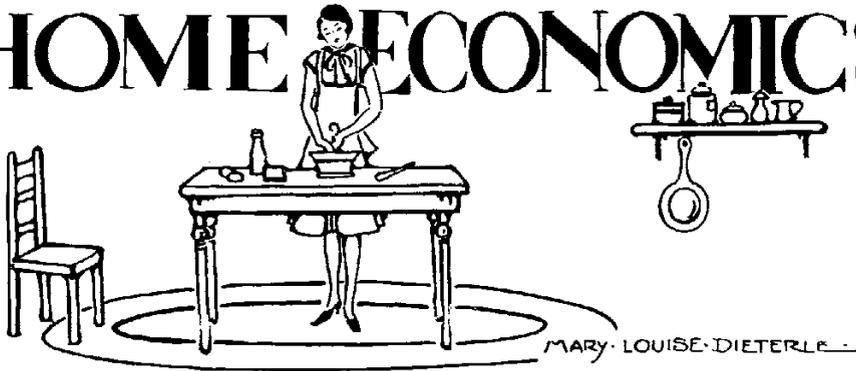

Our members have also profited by the interesting and educational talks on salesmanship, brought to us through many prominent business men of Cincinnati.

The Salesmanship Club of '26 has made a splendid record; the enthusiastic officers have won the whole-hearted support of every member.

THE Home Economics Club was established in the school in the year of 1917-1918. Now, almost every one knows what the H. E. C. represents, as the club gradually becomes more popular. The members of this club are girls taking the Household Arts Course and girls interested in that subject.

The meetings are held on the first Monday of each month. At these a short business meeting is conducted and a program committee furnishes some delightful entertainment in which the club members participate. Also on every other meeting a refreshment committee performs its duty by planning and serving some light refreshments.

This year we were fortunate to have Miss Dyer and Miss Otis, two women from the Household Administration Department of the University, to speak at two of our meetings. These talks were greatly appreciated by all the members as they learned of the many opportunities for girls along the household and dietetic professions.

At the December meeting in place of the program we had a very successful fashion show, the evolution of styles. Girls wore the gowns of their great-grandparents. Different periods were represented chronologically and closed with the up-to-date styles. Also at this meeting we voted a sum of money to be given to the Hughes Christmas Fund, which is used by the school to do the season's good deeds.

The club is also planning the customary picnic in Burnet Woods at which the girls enjoy a final social time.

By the end of the year the girls will have received their pins, which are of triangular shape, bearing the letters H. H. E. inscribed on the appropriate design of a cup and saucer.

Success to the future Home Economics Club.

THE Girl Scout troop at Hughes has undergone a great change since last year. We are now being trained as lieutenants and are sent into other troops to teach various classes and help the captains. At present there are about seventeen or eighteen girls from the Hughes Troop working in the different troops of the city. The girls enjoy their work and are doing splendidly. We are also doing a lot of civic and community work in the courthouse and in our neighborhood. Being a training troop and having girls older than all the other troops, we did not compete for the cup at the rally; but we helped by furnishing plenty of milk, sandwiches, cookies and candy. We are all convinced that the rally was a great success.

We have great hopes for the future, by turning out girls who have a real scout spirit and have been trained for the greater and better things in life. "Be Prepared," as our slogan says, for anything that turns up. After all is said and done we give all the credit to our dear captain, Miss Stoehr, for her invaluable guidance and advice in all our work.

WHY is it that every time you see a picture of a country store, invariably on the knees of the storekeeper and his crony is a checker-board? The reason is, the game of checkers is a sociable one. There are some who regard this venerable pastime with contempt, and are inclined to include chess in this condemnation. To be ignorant of either game is to miss two great joys.

The purpose of our club is to promote better fellowship among the students. Originally it was intended to admit as members, only "A" and "B" graders, but "C" and "D" Graders are welcomed, since the following year will be made up of this year's underclassmen. In the course of one year many interesting and exciting tournaments, both in chess and checkers, have been held, and much profit has been derived by the members from special instruction given on both games. The membership of this club is unique, as any pupil, regardless of class, age or sex is eligible, and the membership is small, but qualified. The club was organized early in February, and its growth has been steady and persevering, indicating stableness and durability for the years to come.

This year's club has just closed a very successful and promising year. We wish to welcome to our fold for the coming year old and new members, to make for the next year a bigger and better club.

EARL BEHRMAN, '27

THE Hughes Senior Orchestra under Mr. A. R. Kratz, has been very successful this year. It is composed of those pupils who are more advanced in music and who desire the experiences of a large orchestra. This group has been playing more advanced music, and has even played music which the Symphony Orchestra renders. The Senior Orchestra has always been a great help, with the Woodward Orchestra, at the commencement exercises. This year's orchestras will perform the same duty. Hughes is going to give a concert this year, and the Senior Orchestra is proud to say that it will be on the program. We are all proud of the room in which we hold our rehearsals, especially so since it has been redecorated. The members have enjoyed and will enjoy the work and pleasure in this organization, and we hope that future members may do the same.

ERIC A. BERGMAN, '26.

JUNIOR ORCHESTRA

THE Junior Orchestra was organized in 1921. It has become one of the best known organizations in the school.

This orchestra is quite educational to the young musicians, as new problems in music come up at each rehearsal. Many of these the pupils would not experience in private lessons.

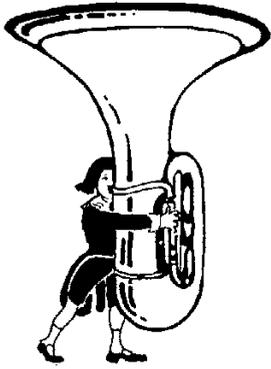

The music played by this orchestra is often more enjoyed by the average audience than that played by further advanced orchestras, because the music is simpler. This makes it more enjoyable. This music is thoroughly understood by each member, a thing which is very essential to a good orchestra.

This orchestra takes a prominent part in the musical activities of the school. This year it accompanied the songs which were sung by the lower grades, and it also took an important part in the school concert. The outside world has heard this orchestra, as it plays over the radio.

The Junior Orchestra has become one of the most helpful and enjoyable organizations at Hughes. Long may it continue.

BAND

Lucile Tull, '26

THE Hughes High School Band was organized in 1919, by Mr. Aiken. In 1925, the supervision was turned over to Mr. Kratz, because of the many duties of Mr. Aiken. During these seven years the band has progressed wonderfully, and now we feel we have a fine musical organization. Many times Mr. Merry has said, "This is the best band we have ever had."

I can assure you that a game would not seem complete without the band. It has made a fine showing when drilling between halves of the football games. Although this has been the first year for the band to take the field, it has been able to form an "H", march, countermarch, and do other evolutions. Numerous appearances have been made before the assemblies, in pep meetings and concerts.

All will agree that the band of "26" is the best ever. This standard will be kept up by the band under the untiring work of Mr. Kratz.

"SMITTIE," '27.

THE Hughes Choral Club was organized this year to give training to those especially interested in singing. Aside from this, it was deemed advisable for us to have a body prepared to give a musical program whenever called upon.

Under the very capable direction and leadership of Mr. Aiken, much progress has been made. Many important factors in voice training have been learned; many splendid songs have been studied, and each member feels that the time given has been well spent.

It is hoped that the interest now manifested in the club may be increased by pupils of the coming years, and that in the near future Hughes may boast a Choral Club second to none among the high schools of the city.

MILDRED LAMMERS, '26.

DURING the decade that the Boys' Glee Club has been in existence, it has grown and flourished by leaps and bounds of a giant's thousand-league boots. From a small group of a dozen, it has increased to the present membership of thirty. It has become a very enviable and coveted honor to become a member, for out of all the candidates that try out, but thirty are retained as members. For better individual instruction, it has become necessary to divide the club into two groups, each of which meet one bell a week to rehearse. Our director, Mr. Burke, never tiring in his efforts on our behalf, has organized a third class, which meets once a week and receives special instructions. Any of the members who wish to may attend this class, and it is needless to say that many avail themselves of this privilege. These rehearsals have been instrumental in adding to the efficiency of the club, as may be attested by an analysis of the public performances it has given during the year.

The music that our club presents is said to be superior to that sung by most high school glee clubs, and even on a par with the selections sung by many college glee clubs. Too much credit cannot be given to "Doc" Burke for his skill as a music teacher. The music selected for presentation is composed of both the old ballads and the compositions of the present day writers.

To us seniors, who are about to leave our high school days behind us, one of our golden memories will be these fifth period rehearsals, from which we derived pleasure and learned to forget our cares in the magic land of harmony. A large percentage of the club will remain at Hughes and they will constitute the nucleus of next year's club which should certainly be qualified to equal, if not to surpass, the record of this year's club.

ROBERT J. McCORMICK, '26.

GIRLS GLEE CLUB

THE membership of the Girls' Glee Club has been increasing steadily for a number of years, and it now numbers about one hundred and sixty-five members.

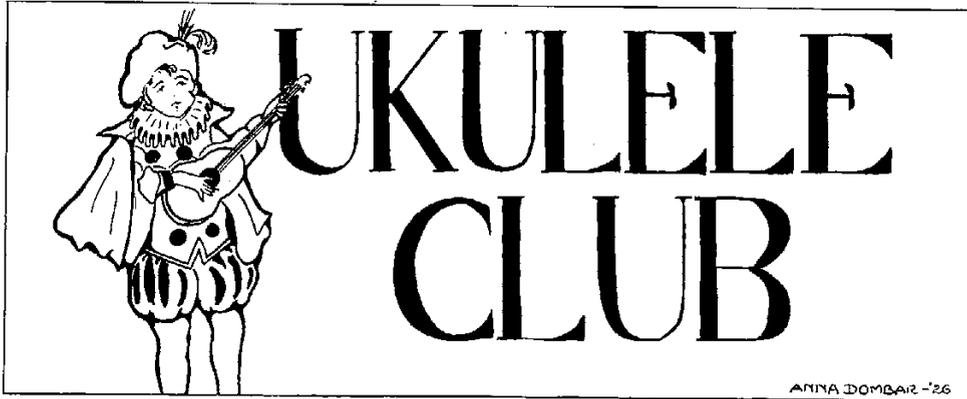

We have welcomed many "C" Grade students and a few "D" Grade ones to the club this year, and it is gratifying to see the girls of the lower grades take an interest in the organization. However, this increase of underclass material has added to our success. We have made no public appearance during the first term. The second term will see us in the annual concert, for which we are earnestly and pleasurably preparing.

The Glee Club meets once a week after school in the new auditorium, under the direction of Mr. Aiken. All girls of the three upper grades and those of the Freshman class who have voices above the ordinary are eligible to try out for membership in the club.

The aim of this organization is to give to those girls who like to sing, and who enjoy good music, an opportunity to get extra training at school. We, who are graduating, wish the club much success, and we sincerely hope it may always live up to the reputation which it has made for itself in years gone by.

ALL hail to the Ukelele Club, one of the latest additions of the various organizations of Hughes. Milner's and Wurlitzer's were rushed for ukes when the club was first organized; and many queer sounding chords issued from Room 14, while newly-acquired uke owners tried to keep up with the more experienced plunkers. Now there is perfect harmony in our chords, and we are plunking our way to success.

Anyone who plunks or clinks a ukelele or banjo-uke is eligible to become a member. The meetings are held every first and third Wednesday of the month. They have not been devoted entirely to learning new chords and selections, however, for the completion of a constitution was the first duty.

We owe the success of the club to the interest our members have taken in it, but most of all to the never-tiring efforts of our sponsor, Miss Scheuerman. Here's to our Uke Club. Long may we plunk.

ONE of the newest organizations at Hughes, is the Ukulele Club. This organization has been divided into two clubs, the "Ukulele Club" and the "Senior Uke Club." The haughty Seniors, to be independent, formed the "Senior Uke Club," to which only Seniors at Hughes are allowed to belong.

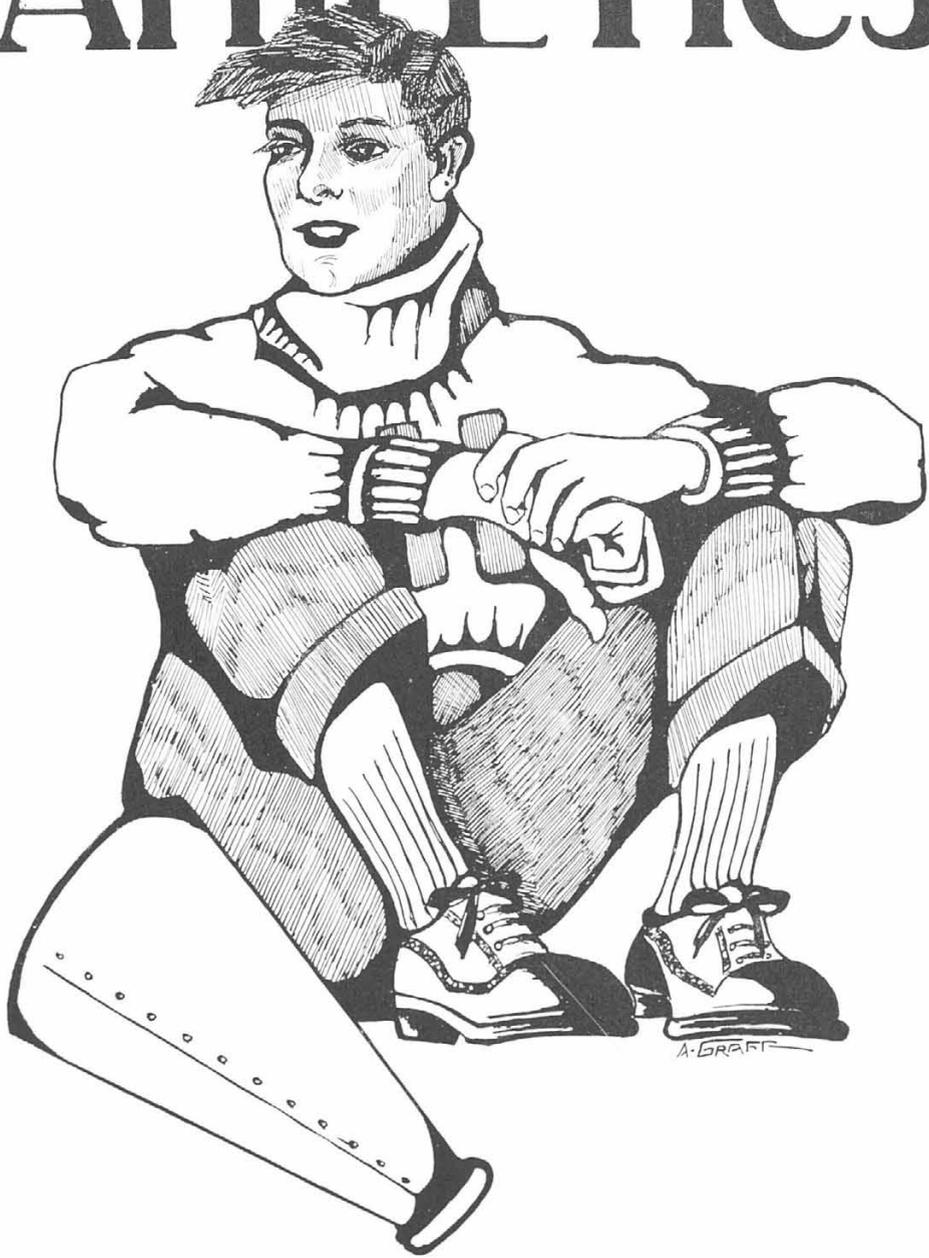

Until the present time we have had no active part in school affairs, for we were just organizing into what, we hope in the future, will be one of the largest and best clubs at Hughes. The object of the "Senior Uke Club" is for the cultivation of new friends and for enjoyment. All seniors who are seeking a good time should know where to find it — join the Senior Uke Club!

We, the Seniors of '26, wish the "Senior Uke Club" great success in the future, and we hope it will build for itself a name of which all its members will be proud.

FOOTBALL

IF ONE measures the success of this year's football season in victories and defeats, our season was a failure; if, on the other hand, one looks further than the scoreboard, he may be slightly encouraged.

Hughes was represented on the gridiron this season by one of the lightest teams in years. Whatever the team lacked in weight it more than made up in speed and spirit. At no time, in victory or defeat, did the "Big Red Team" lie down. Although most of its battles were bitter disappointments, it weathered the storm with the real Hughes Spirit.

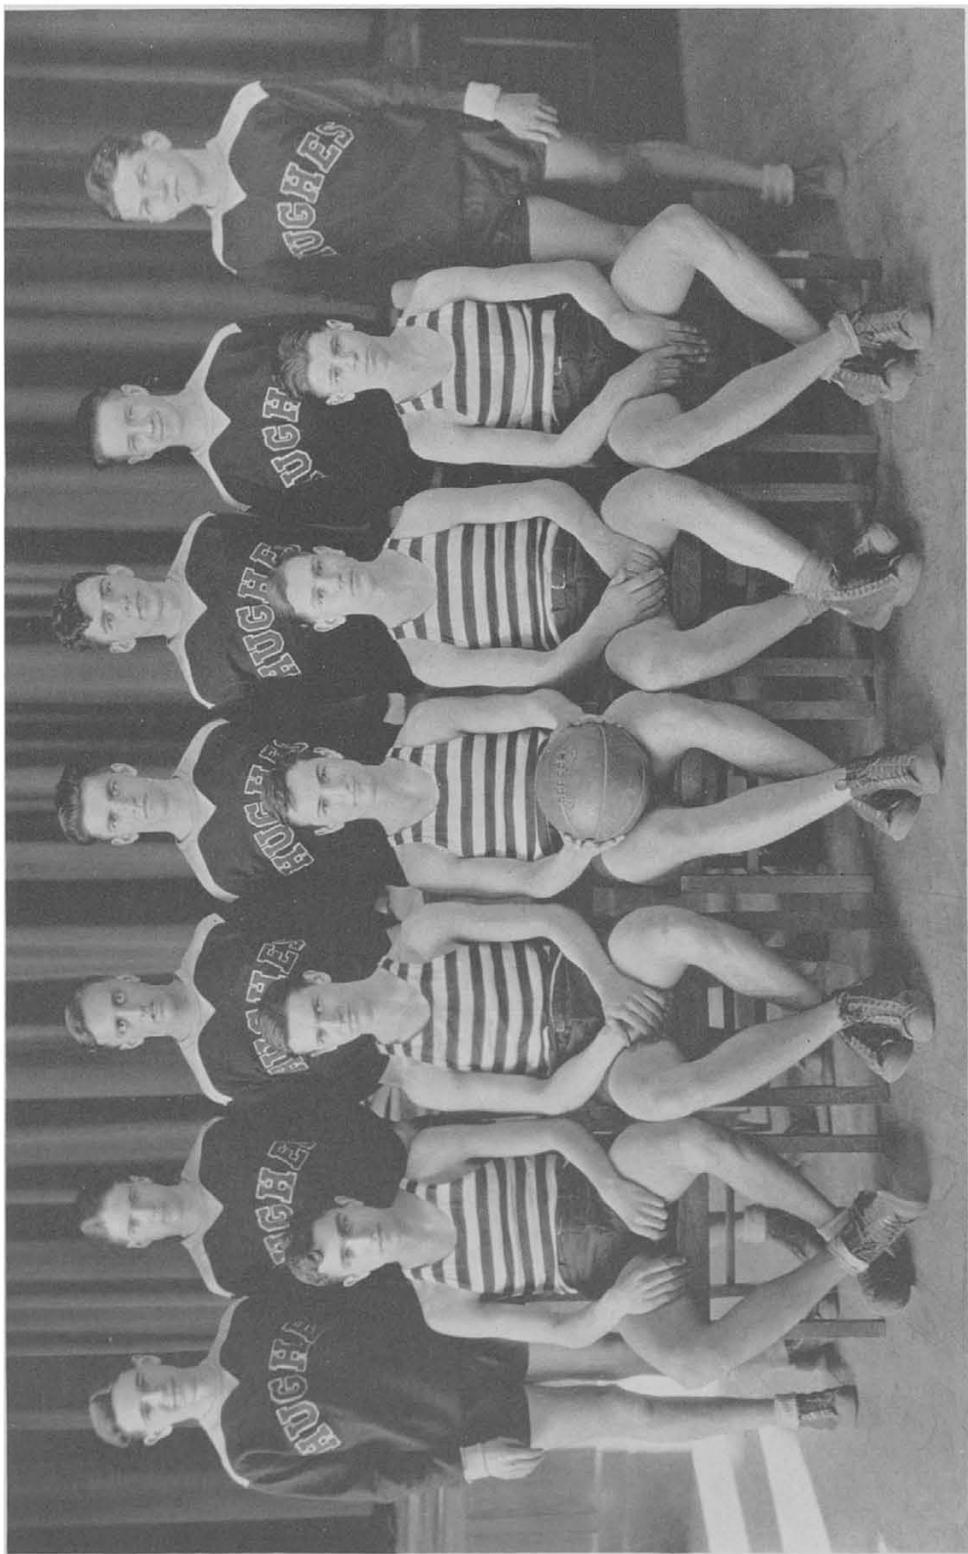

We started the season with a 6-0 victory over the exceedingly strong Newport eleven. We scored in the third period and held a distinct advantage throughout the second half. Our first defeat was at the hands of the powerful Middletown team. Too much weight, water and wisdom earned them a 17-0 margin.

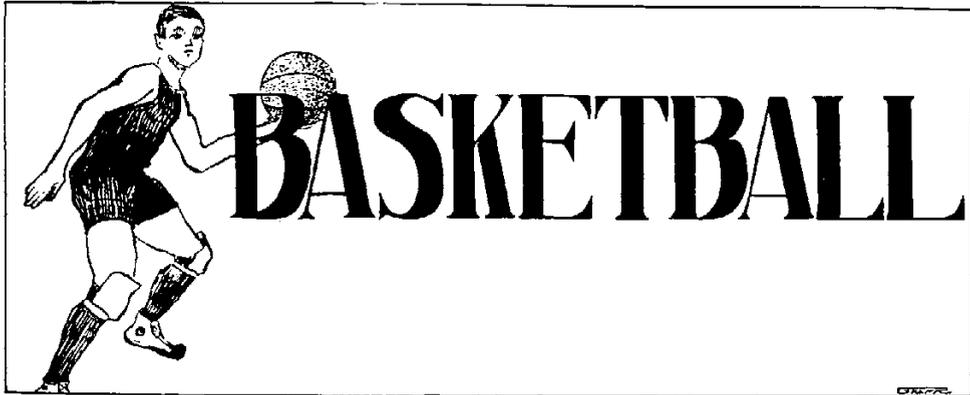

The next two games were nothing short of tragedies to the loyal Hughes rooters. On October 31, we went to Springfield. A wet field caused many fumbles resulting in three scores. We came home nursing the short end of a 20-0 score. On the following Tuesday we were out for revenge. It looked as if Covington were ours; for three quarters we led 6-0. Weight began to tell; in the fourth period, they pushed one over and kicked goal. In a frantic effort to overcome the one point lead, we launched an attack of passes; two were intercepted and went for scores. 19-6 does not show the relative strength of the two teams.

Our 35-0 victory over Woodward showed our spirit was still high and that we could "come back." Withrow and the Cornell Cup was our cry the next time out. The "Big Red Team" put up a wonderful fight against Withrow; we were beaten 13-7, but we did not admit it until the final gun was sounded. True Hughes spirit was present when we tried to smile and take it like a championship team should. Walnut Hills was our next victim by a score of 40-0. Our last game, a defeat, was fought at Hamilton on Thanksgiving Day. We fought the Hamilton Team to a standstill for nearly three quarters; but in the final period, the weatherman gave us enough rain to make the difference in weight a factor; 26-7 was the final count.

Too much credit cannot be given to "Red" Krueck and Arch McCartney. They made a real fighting combination out of green material. If "Red" and "Mac" get half as much out of the team as they put in it, Hughes will win the Cornell Cup next year and a string of championships thereafter.

GEORGE E. PFAU, Jr., '26, Captain

THIS year's basketball can be called fairly successful. As we lost every veteran on last year's team, practice was started earlier in the season, so the new men could be developed before the regular season started. Among the men who showed good form were: Goldmeyer, Moskowitz, Reins and Popp.

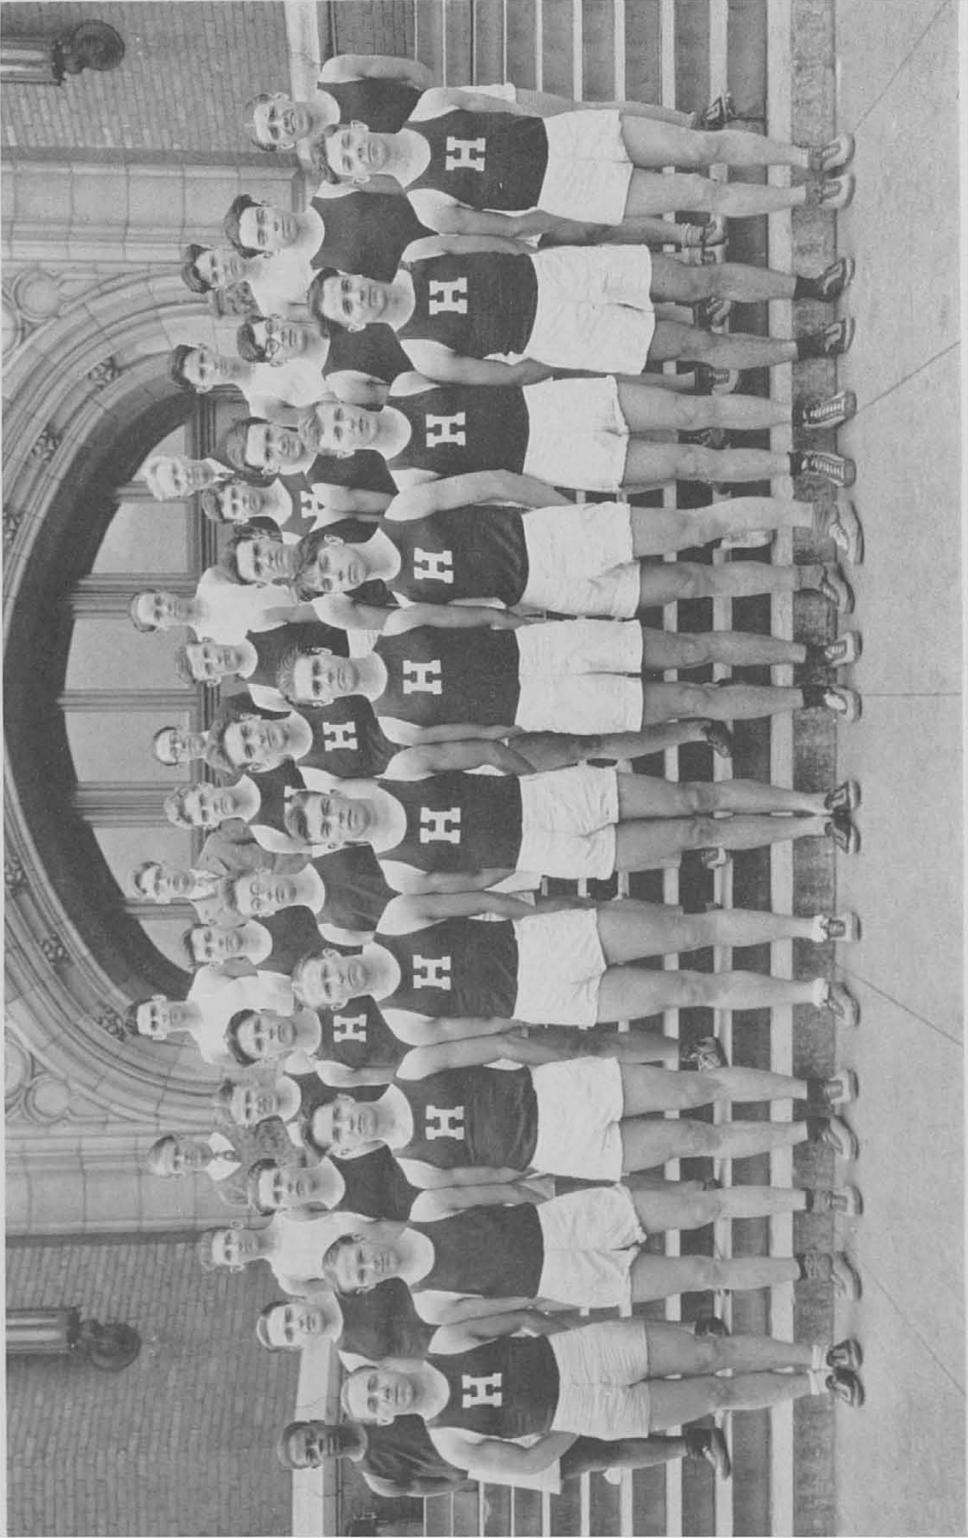

The first game of the season was played with Highland, who, the previous week, had defeated Withrow. We defeated them easily by a score of 29-9. Our second game was with Covington; we did not fare so well. We maintained a good lead until the last quarter, in which Covington scored eleven points, and defeated us by a single point. Games with Middletown and Stivers followed. We were defeated by Middletown, but we beat Stivers in a well-played game 21-14.

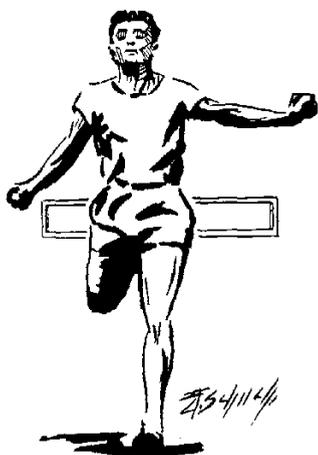

We played our first Big Four game with Withrow. We defeated them 24-18 only by hard fighting. Our next game with Walnut Hills we won easily. On the next week we met our most bitter foe, Woodward, on their home floor. The game was closely contested all the way through, but we were beaten 15-13. We played Hamilton the following week and defeated them easily 26-18. In our next two games we easily defeated Withrow and Walnut Hills. When we played Aurora, we received one of the worst defeats of the season. The score was 26-15. We again met Woodward, only to be defeated by a score of 28-18.

On March 5, 6, 13 we accomplished our crowning feat of the season. We entered the Southwestern Tournament. Because of our two defeats with Woodward we were given only an outside chance to win. But things began to look brighter when we defeated Springfield and Steele. The following week, Saturday, the thirteenth, we upset the dope by defeating the Dayton Preps, 14-8. "Preps" had beat Woodward out of the running by a score of 21-20. That night we played Stivers in the finals. This game was the best played of the entire tournament. At the beginning of the fourth quarter the score was tied 10-10. Popp shot two fouls, which we quickly followed by two baskets, putting the game on ice. We were defeated in the semi-finals of the State Tournament by Zanesville, who proved to be the best team in the tournament.

Hughes had a very successful season in basketball this year. By winning the Southwestern Tournament, we brought to Hughes a championship which had never before been won by them. Too much credit can not be given to "Red" Krueck, our coach, who developed a winning team from the little material offered.

TRACK

THE "Big Red" track team of 1926 has done more than was expected of it. Because of the graduation of most of the principal point-getters of last year's team, outsiders did not believe that Hughes had much chance.

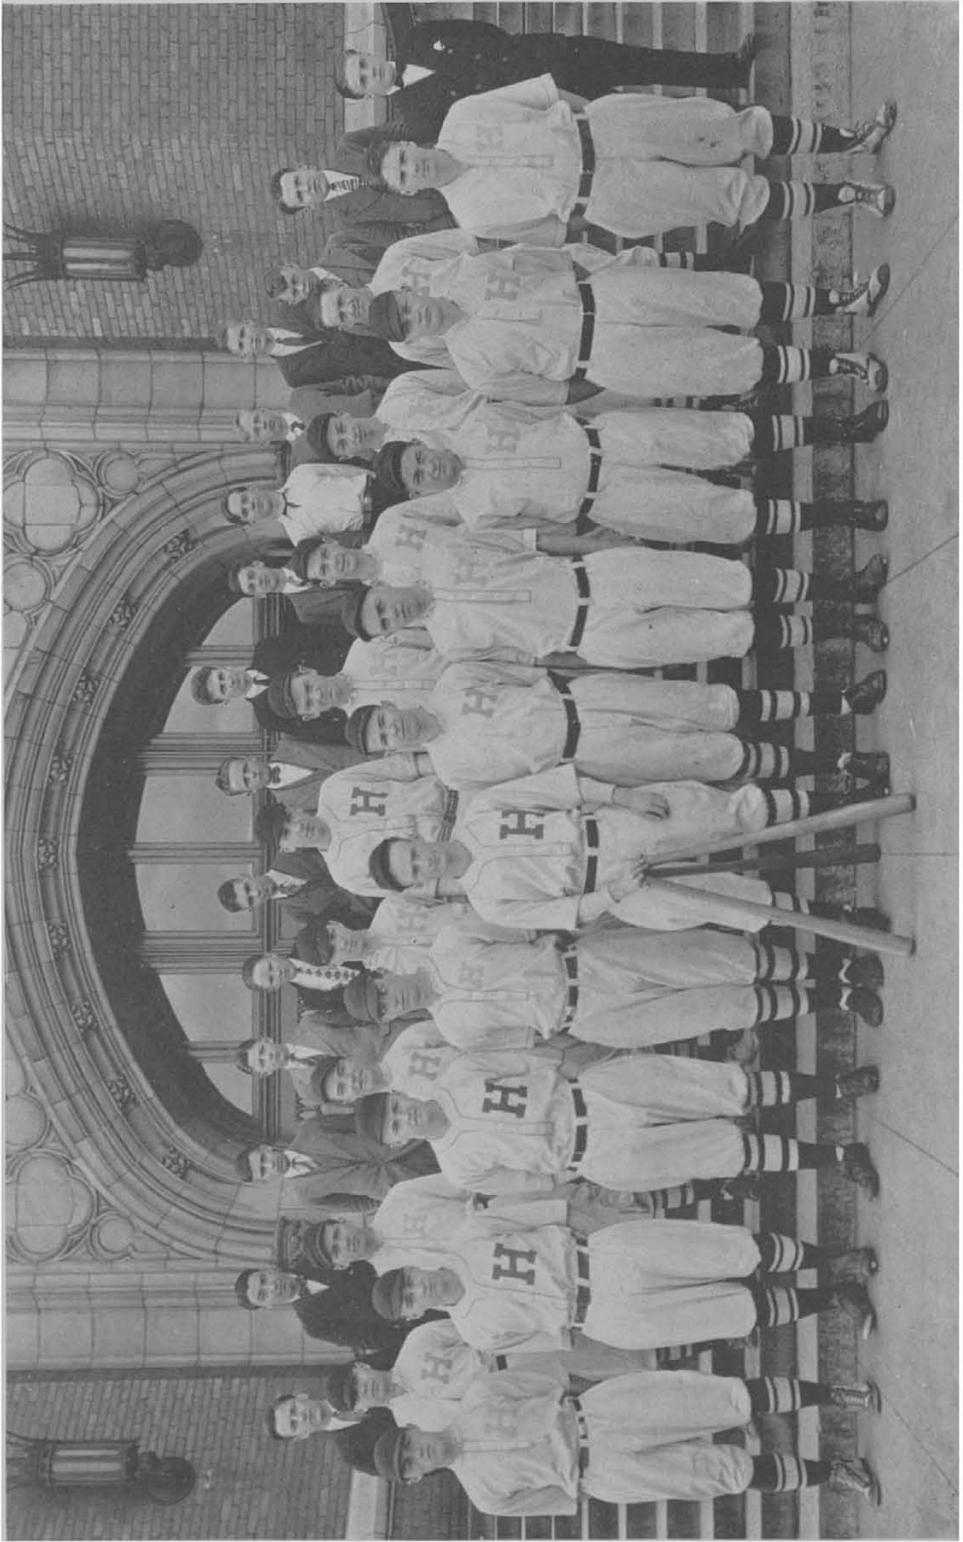

Since the mid-winter meet, these same people have changed their opinions. Although we did not win the meet, we came closer to winning it than any Hughes team in the past four years. The meet was decided by the last event, the pole vault. Withrow took first and second places, and so won the meet.

The meet this year was one of the most bitterly contested in years. Not only was Cincinnati represented with four schools, but also Louisville and Columbus were entered. The final standing of the meet was; Withrow first, with 26 points, Du Pont Manual, of Louisville, second, with 21 points, and Hughes third, with  $19\frac{1}{2}$  points.

Those who scored points for Hughes were: Inman, Bryant, Bell, Smith, Lee, Heisel, Lewis, Weiss, Hoague, Bracher, Sprague and Swick.

In the outdoor meets our chances of winning are much better because of the greater number of events. Although we cannot say accurately just what we will do, we feel certain that Hughes will emerge victorious and uphold the record made by the team of 1925.

EDGAR SWICK, '26, Captain.

THE Hughes Baseball Team is not yet organized; the candidates who have come out make the prospects for a good team. There is at this time, a squad of sixty-five men, some of whom we hope can be counted upon to fill the vacancies left by graduation.

Our practice up to this time has been indoor work, because of the weather conditions; but we hope to begin our outdoor training on March 22, 1926. All practice has been under the able supervision of "Arch" McCartney, who will try to put out a winning team.

The schedule for the season of 1926 is:

April 2 — Withrow.	April 23 — Withrow.
April 9 — Walnut Hills.	April 30 — Walnut Hills.
April 16 — Woodward.	May 7 — Woodward.

There will be additional games with Hamilton, Norwood, Covington, and possibly one or two more, which have not been scheduled at this time.

Whether or not Hughes will have a winning team remains to be seen, although we are looking forward to a successful one. The team this year will strive for the championship with the same Old Hughes fighting spirit, but will need the co-operation of the student body to reach this goal. The Baseball Team, as every one knows, will fight for the honor and glory of Hughes, and for the baseball championship of 1926.

JOHN GIGLEY, '26, Captain.

THE Swimming Team this year has been very successful, and has shown a great improvement over last year's team. In the first interscholastic meet of the year, the Hughes boys surprised the spectators by winning the meet with the large score of thirty-seven points to Woodward's eighteen, Withrow's ten, and Walnut Hills' seven. The results of the second meet of the year were quite similar to those of the previous meet, but Woodward gained a few points. This time Hughes scored thirty-six points, Woodward earned twenty-five points, Withrow struggled for nine counters, and Walnut Hills managed to obtain two points. Up to this time Hughes possesses the first place trophy with a thirty-point lead on Woodward High School, the closest of the three remaining contestants. There will be one more meet and the results of this meet will probably be favorable for Hughes, so the Hughes High School Swimming Team of 1925-1926 can be considered very successful.

Four of the team's best swimmers, Steman, Koehler, A. Waxman and Evans graduate this year, but Mr. Coady is training new men to fill their places on next year's team. With the men who will be in school next year, and the new material which will arrive with the Class of '30, Coach G. Coady, by his skill in coaching, will develop a strong team for the interscholastic competition of next year.

BYRON AHLBURN, '27, Captain.

GIRLS SWIMMING TEAM

EVEN though we girls are somewhat handicapped by being able to practise only once a week, we have tried to make the team a success. The girls of the team had quite a valuable opportunity, this year, to enter a class in Life Saving at U. C. This was very interesting as well as beneficial, for all the strokes were demonstrated and discussed by people who hold world records. We were shown how several strokes have been improved, even in the last year.

We have had only a few meets in which, much to our disappointment, we have not been able to beat Withrow; however, we did make a good showing. Ruth Lueders scored especially for Hughes, as she holds the record, among the high schools, for the hundred yard free style. Maxine Reinhardt has helped to add to the points by her diving, and Margaret Gillham was first in form work. The rest of the team has done its very best, too. Those on the team are: Mary Baeffsky, Anne Colker, Margaret Ferguson, Margaret Gillham, Ruth Leuders, Victoria Momberg, Dorothy Riemeier, Phoebe Rowe, Francesca Scowden and Virginia Seebohm. With the coaching of Miss Ratterman and some encouragement on the part of the school, we hope, next year, to be even more successful.

But still, girls, there is not enough interest shown in the team! What is the matter? More girls should come out for practice, for it is only practice that makes one perfect. If you cannot swim fast, there are form and diving events in which you surely might take part; if not, come and root, for rooting always helps a team to win. Next year let us take more interest in the team, and make it the best Hughes has ever known.

SENIOR GIRLS INTERCLASS BASKETBALL

HOW many of you A-Grade girls, who didn't come down for basketball, know that all you have to do to play basketball is to know how to hypnotize the ball so that it goes into the basket; or, in some way, to stick like a leech to the girl you are guarding; or to fasten springs to your feet and jump like a frog to get the ball on the tip-off? That's all we had to do, girls; and we had just loads of fun doing it. Now aren't those of you who didn't come down, sorry that you missed all the fun? If you're not, you should be. Of course, I wouldn't try to mislead you by trying to make you think that all you had to do was use your eyes and arms and feet, for we had to do more than that; we had to think. Yes, really think. We had to remember not to bounce the ball twice, not to take steps and not to overguard, and we had to remember not to charge, and not to trip, and above all, we had to remember which girls were on our own team. But we enjoyed ourselves immensely and we learned a lot about basketball. So now, we feel that all we need is an invitation or a challenge, and we'll go out and defeat all the other girls' basketball teams in the world.

LAURA HERSCHEDE, '26.

JUNIOR GIRLS INTERCLASS BASKETBALL

“OUT of bounds,” “Steps,” “Take it out right here.” These are some of the cries that may be heard issuing from the girls’ gym every Wednesday afternoon. The Junior Girls’ Interclass Basketball games are on. There is lots of pep and action in these contests. The friendly rivalry of the girls makes the playing fast and enjoyable.

This year three teams represent the B Grade, while last year the Juniors were used as subs on the school team, and seldom played except, of course, in practice. The interclass contests have come into favor and the schedule of the Hughes team has been dropped. This plan affords an opportunity for those girls who would stand no chance otherwise.

We have bright hopes for the future, for as long as this plan is followed, Hughes cannot lose. Wish us luck.

A GRADE CENTERBALL

AT THE beginning of the school year all the girls were peppy and eager to play centerball. They came out enthusiastically for practice at first, but as school studies and activities became heavier, many drifted away, until there were just a set few on whom to depend. Consequently, the games showed the effect.

When we played our first game with the Sophomores, we defeated them; but in the Junior-Senior game, the superior playing of the Juniors took the game from us. At the Freshie-Senior game, there was not even a whole team put on the floor by the "A" Grade, consequently we lost.

The Senior girls have not been successful in centerball, but we certainly have enjoyed ourselves whenever we played it. Perhaps we did not take it seriously enough, but we played more for the fun of it, which, after all, is really not a fault.

B GRADE CENTERBALL

HERE we are! The Champs of '26! Last year we, as Sophomores, had our hearts set on the championship, but the Seniors, with their strong and peppy team, beat us to it. We then resolved to be the Champs of '26, or die. Of course, not wanting to die in the least, we, through hard and constant practice and the splendid co-operation of each girl, conquered the Freshies, our first victims, with a score of 14-2.

The game with the Seniors this year was not as exciting as we had hoped it would be, but it proved much more successful for us, than the game with the Seniors of last year. The B's scored 8 points and the A's 3.

We then met the Sophs and conquered them with a score of 21-4. This decided the championship for us.

It was arranged that the winning team of Hughes should play the Woodward victors, and our good fortune enabled us to play Woodward's team. This was a most exciting and keenly-fought game on the part of both teams. The Hughes Eleven scored 9 points to Woodward's 8, and again we were victorious.

C GRADE CENTERBALL

THE interclass centerball games this year brought out a surprising number of applicants, thus making it difficult to choose the best for the positions. As the time went on the girls were placed according to their ability.

The D-Grade game was an exciting and easy victory for us. But although all the teams played well, the A and B teams proved too strong for us.

We certainly wish to congratulate the B-Grade for its hard playing and complete victories over all the centerball teams of the school.

D GRADE CENTERBALL

ON THE first practice day many girls came out and although they attended practice faithfully, our first game, which was with the Juniors, was a great disappointment. They defeated us 10-1!

Our hopes rose again before the next game, which was with the Sophomores, but, alas, we were again doomed to disappointment. But "everything comes to him who waits" (and works), so our last struggle, which was with the Seniors, proved successful, the score being 8-4.

Although we lost two games we profited greatly by the experience, and we hope to do a great deal better next year.

HUGHES HOME ROOM BASKETBALL TEAMS

THE first meeting of the Hughes Home Room Basketball Teams was held in the fall and spring of the years 1925 and 1926. This is the first attempt at intramural basketball on such a large scale in a local high school. Under this system more students can participate in the games. Thirty-two basketball teams played in this league; fourteen teams composed of "D"-Grade students, ten "C" combinations and eight "A-B" teams, making three divisions, the winners of which clashed in the championship series. The playing was conducted under the plan of elimination after losing two games, until one team survives in each of the three groups.

312, the "A"-Grade home-room started the tournament by defeating 311. Victories and defeats followed for the various teams and it so happened that in the A-B group, 312 and 313 reached the semi-finals. These two teams played their game as a preliminary to the Hughes-Hamilton game on February 5. 312 easily won over their opponents by a score of 18 to 3. In the "C" group 224 met 216, at U. C., February 19. 224 defeated 216. In the "D" group 101 played a preliminary to the Hughes-Woodward game. 101 proved the stronger of the two teams. The finals were finally reached. 224, the "C" group champs played 101 and defeated them, 20-6, Monday, March 21, 1926. 224 played 312 for the intramural championship.

TENNIS TEAM

TWO years ago the first interscholastic tennis tournament was held at the Cincinnati Tennis Club. Both the year it was held and the following year, all the events were won by Hughes. We now have two legs on the R. A. Holden Trophy. This trophy must be won five years before it becomes the permanent possession of any high school. Besides winning the Cincinnati Championship we won the state championship. The state tournament was held at Columbus.

The prospects for 1926 look very bright, and it is more than likely that we shall repeat the successes of last year. Though we lost the services of "Dick" Franz this year, we will be strengthened greatly by the addition of Moskowitz, Zeuffle and Ruth Oexman. As the weather will not permit, it cannot be predicted who will represent Hughes this year, but whoever it is, we are sure to come through to championships in both the city and state titles.

- 25 — “Old Hughes” makes its first appearance this year.
- 26 — “Doing Does It,” are you still doing it?
- 28 — Examination Blues, “Why, oh, why didn’t I study before the last night?”

- 1 — Teachers hand back exam papers, and keep their hands over their ears for a while.
- 3 — It looks as if Mr. Games has found a gold mine in Falkenstein.
- 5 — Report cards handed out. As Mr. Lotter would say, “Nuf ced.”
- 8 — If 312 didn’t get its name on the Honor Roll, blame Glen Willis.
- 10 — Andy has no trouble getting names for his petition.
- 11 — Although not of a naturally suspicious nature, we would like to know whether Ray Moore really fined himself five cents or not.
- 12 — Lincoln freed the slaves. He also freed the hard-working students one day each year.
- 15 — The Anti-Collegian Society puts a ban on knickers.
- 16 — The society has fallen into financial difficulties. Bill Gazlay appears without his knickers.
- 17 — We fill out our program cards, first finding out how to spell our teachers’ names.
- 19 — Baaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaah!!!!

- 23 — Mr. Games is Miss Thorndyke and Mr. Sluss today.
- 24 — Rival “Chess and Checker” Club started in 309.
- 25 — A strong wind and short dresses proved a disastrous combination to many of our Seniors.
- 26 — The new “Zebra” shirts fail to blind the Woodward Cagers. Score 28-18.
- 27 — Well, we won the debate anyway.

- 1 — Not only the lion but the whole Zoo turned out this year.
- 3 — Lockers repainted for $3.00, plus notification to your parents.
- 5 — Hughes wins her way to the semi-finals games at Dayton.
- 7 — Jacques Jolas starts the day with music. His selections were unpronounceable, but beautiful.
- 8 — Saylor Park ticket rebate. My, how that town has grown.
- 9 — All clubs report their largest membership develops when they have their pictures taken.
- 10 — No excitement today, 312 and 205 get third lunch.
- 12 — We all enjoyed Dr. Melish's speech.
- 14 — Hughes brings the Southwestern Championship to Cincy. E. Flax on "All Tournament Team."
- 16 — Snow prevents outside baseball practice.
- 17 — Steps are painted green today in honor of the Irish. Moskowitz seen with a green tie.
- 18 — "312" quartette sings us a lullaby.
- 19 — "We have faith that we will get to school," says Mr. Christy.
- 22 — Rev. Father O'Connor speaks on "hope." I hope I get out of all my exams, don't you?

- 23 — Pictures taken outside today. Steman temporarily joins the Choral Club.
- 24 — Mr. Merry's absence and Spring is a good combination to skip your last bells — if you don't get caught!
- 25 — Sages give matinee to fund the Dramatic Clubs.
- 26 — Money galore. Rabbi James H. Heller speaks on "Charity."

- 1 — Mr. Simon sang and danced while Mr. Aiken played the harp at Mr. Lotter's wedding.
- 2 — Culp's Quartette gives concert.
- 3 — Boys of 313 wear slave-bracelets. Dick Franz seems to have been the originator of that barbarian fad.
- 4 — Easter. No school!
- 5 — Lee sends Miss Rowe a ten-pound egg. Sure, he won it on a punch-board. Wot of it?
- 6 — No eats today. Strike in the lunchroom. Less work and more money are their demands.
- 7 — Strike still on. Mr. Merry cooks. Red Krueck and Doc Poos serve the boys, while Miss Callahan and Miss Levine serve the girls.
- 8 — Mr. Merry is still our chef. We try the "honor system" of dishing out our own rations. Miss Portner immediately decides to give the strikers their demands.
- 9 — Erhardt fools the world and makes the unreal seem real. How much? How much for that? Yes sir, the Salesmanship Club had a great time at their banquet even though nothing was sold.
- 12 — University of Cincinnati finds out what we know of our mother tongue.
- 13 — Hughes High School holds an outdoor session at Redland Field today.
- 14 — A mouse enjoys the girl's swimming pool by itself. Now, girls, a mouse wouldn't harm you for the world. You sweet little darlings!
- 16 — Hughes bites a hunk out of the Bulldogs for a 4 to 3 victory in twelve innings. (?)

- 19 — Several hundred turned out for the Chess and Checker Club meeting. The dance and refreshments were very good.
- 20 — The baseball team practices on Coy Field. Yes, sir, that is the team of 1928.
- 23 — The teachers once more put in "red and black" how much they esteem us. Our musical organizations appear before the public.
- 30 — Musical organizations appear before the eighth grade pupils and their parents.

Two hundred eight

- 1 — Calendar Committee celebrates Mary's birthday.
- 3 — Seniors hand in their orations to Mr. Merry.
- 4 — Mr. Merry gets a good laugh from these little manuscripts.
- 5 — He decides future Ciceros are not to be found in Hughes.
- 6 — Hughes-Woodward game called off on account of snow.
- 7 — Big Hughes Club Open Hop at the Alms.
- 8 — Hotel Alms closes for repairs.
- 10 — Hotel Alms ready for next senior stunt.
- 12 — Baseball making balls fly — interest grows.
- 15 — We begin to recall the last term's work; we might not make that 80.
- 16 — Teachers calm in the face of our impending disaster.
- 17 — Night School closes. No more inexplicable notices on the board.
- 18 — We congratulate Class of '27 on its artists, Louis Ehrhardt and Lloyd Wuesterfeld.

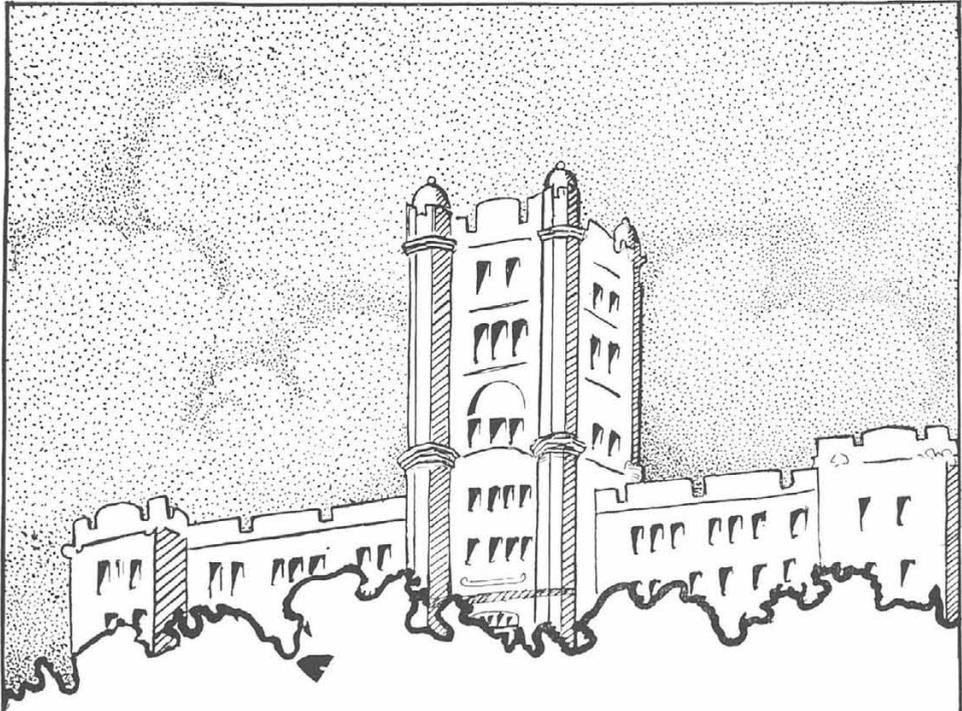

- 20 — Lockers are searched for textbooks. "The early bird gets the worm." The other bird pays for lost books.
- 25 — Outdoor sports in order. Baseball, track, front steps!
- 28 — We pause to commemorate the heroism of those who paid the great price that we might live in a free country. The Annual appears.

- 1 — Some Seniors take their last exams at Hughes.
Some have a "B"-Grade subject.
- 2 — It's hardly believable, but someone stole a "Collegian Ford" from Calhoun Street. Perhaps the junk man took it. Who knows? Who cares?
- 3 — Loving Seniors gasp and sigh as the third lunch bell rings. There's a reason, for the days are fleeting fast when the Seniors will be here no longer to enjoy their after-lunch chats.
- 4 — C. Schuck graduates this year. From an artistic standpoint Hughes will lose a very valuable man. See the Annual.
- 7 — The boys wear clean shirts every day. That's right; they don't wear coats. Too hot.
- 8 — It is said, "Girls talk more than boys." They surely outdid the boys in the Oratorical Contest.
- 9 — As usual the Senior Plays go over big.
It has been rumored that mothers go out with their daughter's boy friends, but who ever thought of a Pirate not swearing or drinking?
- 10 — Seniors are not at school today. Almost all of them are at "R. B." or "Giddings."
- 11 — Goodbye, dear alma mater, goodbye.
- 12 — We have strange feelings as we pass Mr. Merry for the last time.
- 14 — B and C and D-Graders celebrate Flag Day; while Seniors are out looking for a job.

- 15 — Just how the 1927 treasury of 312 will keep up next year without a Falkenstein is a big question.
- 16 — Juniors become Seniors; Sophomores become Juniors; Freshmen become Sophomores; and Seniors become Freshmen. Evolution, eh?
- 17 — Anything that you do not understand call up Valley 828 and we will reluctantly explain. Cordially yours,
Calendar Committee.
- 18 — The Calendar Committee becomes a memory.

THE GREENHOUSE

HUGHES is the only school in Cincinnati that has a greenhouse. This accounts for the beautiful flowers always seen in the windows.

In the greenhouse, pupils plant bulbs and seeds. This work inspires them to plant gardens of their own. The seedlings, grown at Hughes, they transplant in their own gardens when spring comes. The pupils learn to care for their gardens; to combat plant pests and disease; to spray and to keep their plants healthy.

Methods of plant propagation are taught. It is done by means of roots, seeds, cuttings, bulbs and underground stems. Flowers in season, chrysanthemums in the fall, freesias and various plants in the winter, lilies, daffodils and hyacinths in the spring, are found in the offices, in the halls. On the stage, when some special occasion calls for decoration, are always beautiful ferns and flowers.

The greenhouse, through the sale of seedlings, and through its Easter and Mothers' Day sales, is entirely self-supporting. It raises sufficient funds to buy soil, roots and bulbs. It keeps up the much-admired flower beds on the lawn. In addition, plants and flowers are frequently sent to sick people to carry to them some of the cheerful Hughes spirit. No spot in Hughes more quietly or more effectively carries on its work of cheer.

THE NEW DINING ROOM

THERE has been a new addition this year to the flat, which is under the care of the Home Economics girls. It is in the form of complete new dining room furnishings. The gift is the result of the kindness and generosity of Miss Anna M. Goodloe, who taught at Hughes for many years. This room is surely the pride of the girls in charge.

The new furnishings, and the walls and woodwork have all been done in gray. The imposing table, surrounded by twelve chairs with beautifully carved backs, attracts one's attention upon entering the room. The Tudor style of furnishings corresponds very well with "Old Hughes" itself, as it is also of this period of architecture.

The long console table of wrought iron, topped with marble, and the mirror above, are attractive. A gorgeous piece of tapestry, portraying some mediaeval scene, together with a picture hung here and there, lends colorfulness.

A blue chenille rug sets off the furniture. The windows make the room cheery, with their curtains of gold. Over the table the chandelier, with its six electric candles, casts a rosy glow over everything.

The Class of '25 added the final touch when they presented the china for the dining room.

These splendid gifts enable the girls to have the experience for furnishing their own homes at some future date. The dining room is used for teas and luncheons.

Hughes again wishes to thank Miss Goodloe for her splendid forethought. We feel sure she will always be remembered by all who have been entertained in the room, or by those who have used this wonderful gift.

SCHOOL CONCERTS

THIS year the Band has had an unusual feature in its program. On certain Monday afternoons, at the end of school, it has played in the front hall. Everybody seems to like this entertainment. The Band has also played several times in the Auditorium, during "Pep" meetings. This Christmas, when the school gave its annual Christmas play, a double-quartet added very much to the program. Last year the school gave a very creditable concert, which was liked by everyone. In this concert, the Boys' Glee Club, the Girls' Glee Club, the Junior Orchestra, the Senior Orchestra and the Band displayed their ability. There were also several solos. The school is expecting to give a concert this year. This concert will be given by the same organizations which performed last year. The addition of the Choral Club will lend a new element. We are all sincerely hoping that the concert this year will be "put across" as well as the one last year.

DRAMATICS

Christmas Play

DURING this memorable year at Hughes, the Seniors have given some very interesting plays. The first of these was, "Why the Chimes Rang," and was adopted by Elizabeth McFadden from a story by Ramond McDonald. The characters in the play were portrayed by Senior students, and one Freshman boy. Holger, otherwise known as Carl Gracely, was the little boy who gave his all, his penny, to the altar of God. His sacrifice was accepted above all the jewels and wealth of the other givers and the chimes in the beautiful cathedral that had not been heard for many a year, rang louder that night than ever before.

The play was considered a great success. It was directed by Miss Cairns; the scenery was under the direction of Miss Pfaffinger and Mr. Ritchey; Mr. Aiken trained the choir which provided inspirational carols before the play. The effective lighting was the work of Mr. Huber. The cast of players was as follows:

Holger . . . . .	Carl Gracely	Courtier . . . . .	Henry Thamann
Steen . . . . .	Chas. Rechenbach	Beautiful Woman . . . . .	Ruth Barber
Bertel . . . . .	Wm. McAleer	Scholar . . . . .	Wm. Gazlay
Old Woman . . . . .	Stella Nuernberger	Young Girl . . . . .	Marie Vogt
Priest . . . . .	Robert Westerman	King . . . . .	Chas. Graydon
Angel . . . . .	Mildred Luedeke	Queen . . . . .	Ruth Rosenfelder
Imperial-looking Man, Fred Hauber

"BIMBO, the Pirate," a play by Booth Tarkington, was chosen as one of the Senior plays of the year. From this play we get an altogether different idea of pirate life, since these pirates are greatly controlled in their actions. Drunkenness and profanity are forbidden on the bark of the Gentlemen Sea Rovers. Sunday is strictly observed as the Sabbath, and no man is allowed to kiss his daughter on that day. The cast is as follows:

The Gunner . . . . .	Ferdinand Hauber
Robert, captain of the captured merchant vessel . . . . .	Albert Davis
Lydia, his daughter . . . . .	Mary Stevens
Mr. Driscoll, Lydia's father . . . . .	Ray Romer
Deaf and Dumb Man . . . . .	Harvey Freiburger
Pirate with the Braided Beard . . . . .	Lindol Meyers
Bimbo, President of the Gentlemen Sea Rovers . . . . .	Steven McNutt

A second play, in direct contrast to "Bimbo, the Pirate," is the comedy by Roland Pertwee, "Evening Dress Indispensable." This play is very charming and interesting to the audience. The cast of players includes:

Alice Waybury, widow . . . . .	Thelma Moschel
Sheila Waybury, her daughter . . . . .	Mary Jane Ragsdale
George Connaught, a senator for Mrs. Waybury's hand,	Robert McCormick
Geoffrey Chandler, Sheila's lover . . . . .	William Gazlay
Nellie, a maid . . . . .	Alma Friedrichs

The receipts from the plays swell the Gift Fund of '26.

My bonnie lad, I say to thee,
Thou sure maun be hard hearted.
We canna hear; we canna see;
Our senses ha' departed.

Twa score o' lads await thee,
To see thee ope yon door.
Two score o' lads shall praise thee
Then an' evermore.

Thou wouldna be sae cruel, lad,

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the undersigned members of the Senior Class of 1926, being of unsound mind and forgetful memory, do make and publish this, our Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any will or wills heretofore made by us.

We direct that our executor (named some time within the next one hundred years) pay our funeral expenses and just debts (if any) from his own resources.

We, the members of the Humor Staff, do cheerfully will to some aspiring members of the B-Grade, our job of collecting dumb jokes.

I, Glenn Schiering, after due deliberation, have decided to give up a prolonged vacation abroad and to leave the rest of the A-Grade dues in the treasury.

I, Willis Schumer, having been voted the best-dressed boy in the Class of '26, do leave my other suit to some Beau Brummel of the B-Grade.

We, Edith Schott and Marjorie Gale, without doubt the most tranquil, calm, collected, unruffled, undisturbed, unexcitable and neat girls in the Class of '26, leave said reputation to be acquired by some member of the Freshman Class.

I, Leon Blitz, leave my Grecian form and my graceful manners to some Valentino of the Freshman Class. I would like to add that Hughes hamburger made me what I am today.

I, James Frankel, leave all my bum jokes and witty stories to some nervy member of the Junior Class, for said jokes and stories are no longer of use to me, as I have exhausted both my supply and the patience of the present Senior Class.

I, Virginia Hill, do leave a wad of chewing gum under the third seat in the fourth row in 205, to be given to next girl who occupies that seat. Said gum is Wrigley's and "the flavor lasts."

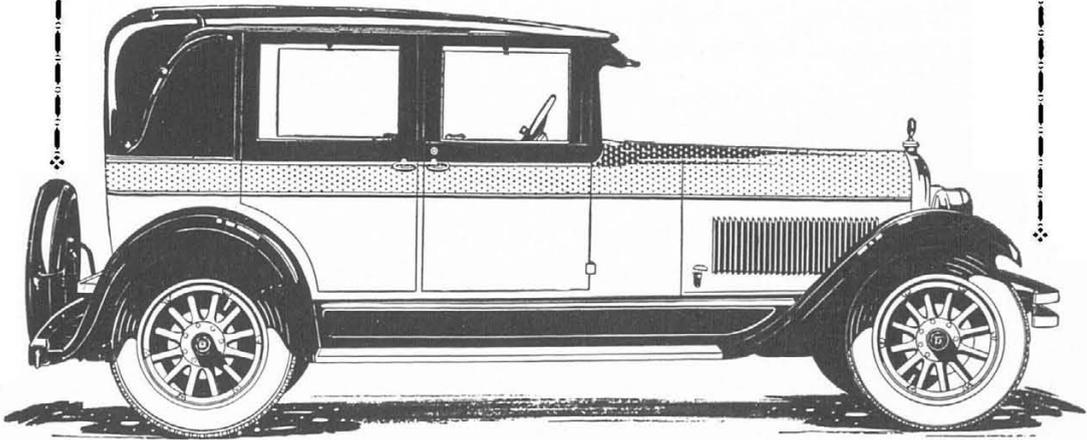

In Witness Whereof, the members of the Class of '26 have executed this Last Will and Testament at Hughes High School on this, the thirty-first day of May, 1926, in the presence of the subscribed witnesses and in the presence of each other and in the presence of everybody in general and nobody in particular.

A magazine writer says that the dog fills an empty space in a man's life.
This is especially true of the hot dog.

You can kiss some of the girlies all of the time and all of the girlies some of the time, but you can't kiss all of the girlies all of the time.

Courtship makes a fellow spoon, but marriage makes him fork over.

Great bluffs from little study grow.

There are two kinds of girls; those that kiss and those that are never asked.

A man in love with a dimple often makes the mistake of marrying the whole girl.

A slip of a girl will make the steadiest man fall.

"A country without a man," answered the shy (?) little girl.

It was the week before little Willie's birthday and he was on his knees petitioning Divine Providence for presents, in a very loud voice.

"Please send me," he shouted, "a bicycle, a tool-chest, a —"

"What are you praying so loud for?" his younger brother interrupted, "God ain't deaf."

"I know he ain't," said little Willie, winking toward the next room, "but grandma is."

Man is but a worm. He comes along, wiggles a little in the dust; then some chicken gets him.

She — How is it that widows generally manage to marry again?

He — Because dead men tell no tales.

"I shouldn't have eaten that mission steak,"
Said the cannibal king with a frown,
For often I've heard that old proverb;
'You can't keep a good man down'."

When you begin reading the letter over twice or thrice or more —
And studying even the envelope and postmark —
And gazing long at the opening and closing, in search of some deeply hidden meaning —
And admiring the handwriting and the stationery —
And smiling a dreamy smile as you read —
You're gone, my boy, you're gone.

"When you want quality at popular prices, see us."

The more than usual lack of intelligence among the students that morning had got under the professor's skin.

"Class is dismissed," he said, exasperatedly. "Please don't flap your ears as you pass out."

He had called on her twice a week for six months, but had not proposed.

"Ethel," he said, as they were taking a moonlight stroll one evening, "I am going to ask you an important question."

"Oh, George!" she exclaimed, "this is so sudden. Why, I —"

"What I want to ask you is this," he interrupted, "what date have you and your mother decided upon for our wedding."

Wife — Dear, if you'll get a car I can save a lot on clothes during our vacation this summer.

Hub — How do you mean?

Wife — Well, you see, if we go to one hotel as formerly, I'll need seven dresses; whereas, if we have a car I can get one dress and we'll go to seven hotels."

The Spirit of 205

To me, alone and wandr'ing through the maze,
My hand outstretched to feel a stumbling way,
There came a light, from Heaven sent, A ray,
A gleam, on which to fix my seeking gaze.
It led me forth from dark'ning hold of night,
Swept up, my eyes from stone to shining star.
Moved on — I followed: o'er the tree-tops bright
It rose. Now on the heights it shines. Afar
The path may wind, into the steepest pit,
Or'long the low sand of the sea: on high
My hopes will soar, and I shall trust in it,
And follow where it may before me show
The place where Truth, and Faith, and Honor glow.
At length to lead me toward the sunset sky.

The professor had asked time and again for the students to put more personal touch in their themes, so one of the papers which he received ended thus:

"Well, professor, how are the wife and kiddies; and, by the way, before I forget it, could you lend me five dollars?"

"What do they mean by the Rising Generation?"

"Well, they don't mean the men who rise in the street car," commented Helen Sapadin, who had hung on a strap all the way to school.

"Would you like to take a nice long walk," she asked.

"Yes, I'd love to"— joyously —

"Well, don't let me detain you," she said sweetly.

A waiter in a restaurant was making out a patron's bill.

"Let me see, sir," he said, "did you have mock turtle soup or cream of barley?"

"I can't tell you," said the patron. "It tasted like coal-oil to me."

"Quite so, sir," said the waiter. "That would be our cream of barley, sir. The mock turtle tastes like soap."

YOUR COLLEGE TRAINING

The University of Cincinnati, with its nine colleges and schools, offers unexcelled training for the young man or woman contemplating a career. Preparation can be secured here for a majority of the professions, while work of a general and cultural nature that fits the student to meet the problems of life, lays the foundation for professional studies, and opens new possibilities to him, is offered in the arts courses.

Business today demands college-trained men and women, and your municipal university offers you the opportunity to secure this training at the cost of little more than your own efforts.

Oh why did I talk in study
And why did I come so late?
Why wasn't it somebody else
Who had this awful fate?

I'll miss the game tomorrow
While the others shout and cheer,
I'll sit and do my lessons,
In this dreadful prison, here.

These bleak four walls surround me
And that awful teacher, there
Is worse than any ogre,
Guarding captives in his lair.

There are loads of things I want to do,
And things I'll miss, I fear.
Instead, I resolutions make,
And moan my fate, Oh dear!

Books

The most gracious and useful of gifts

WHAT is more subtly a compliment than the gift of a well-chosen book? And what is more enjoyable or more useful? A worthy book is the garnered fruit of a distinguished experience. We all learn much in time, but none of us grow fast enough to adequately meet the opportunities and obligations of life, for service, enlightenment and abiding pleasure, without making use of the experience and inspirations of others. This experience and inspiration is most conveniently revealed in books. They are the most wonderful Open Sesames—the greatest of labor-saving devices. They hasten our intellectual steps; they broaden our horizon; they clear away the fogs of unreason and the clouds of ignorance. They sow for harvest, otherwise impossible. They give comfort and joy in the adventure of life.

Going Slow

The salesman was doing his best to sell a motorcycle, but the prospective customer was a bit short in the purse. So the salesman enlarged upon the "pay-as-you-ride" plan of installments.

"I'll take the machine," said the customer, "but remember, I'm a very slow rider."— Motor Weekly.

"Repeat the words the defendant used," said counsel for the plaintiff in a case of slander.

"I'd rather not," said the witness timidly, "they were hardly words to tell to a gentleman."

"I see," said counsel, "then whisper them to the judge."— Tid-Bits.

When patronizing our advertisers, mention HUGHES HIGH ANNUAL.

Policeman (to bespectacled old professor who has witnessed the smash) — You say you saw the accident, sir. What was the number of the car that knocked this man down?

Professor — I'm afraid I've forgotten it. But I remember noticing that if it were multiplied by itself the cube root of the product would be equal to the sum of the digits reversed.— Passing Show.

Adam — Jones is having a lot of trouble with his car.

Eve — What ails it?

"Nothing. He is trying to sell it."— Judge.

TO OUR FRIENDS

WE, The advisors and the staff of the Hughes Annual, wish to acknowledge the courteous assistance of Mr. Merry and the entire official body.

The Art Department and its students merit our heartfelt thanks for their untiring service to the beauty of our Annual.

The Printing Department has our sincere gratitude for the advice, time, and labor so generously given.

Without the efficient and cheerful aid of the Commercial Department, we could not have gone to press in orderly, well-typed articles. We thank you.

To Hughes, her teachers and all her grades, we offer our fraternal thanks for her sympathetic coöperation in everything asked of them.

To our friends, who gave us financial aid with their advertisements, and with their complimentary greetings, we gratefully offer our thanks.
